FOREPAUGH HAS IT!

The Well-Known Showman Very Ill With La Grippe--The Malady's Deadly Work.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—Mr. Adam Forepaugh, the well-known circus man, is lying at his residence here, suffering from a very sudden and severe attack of influenza.

Mr. Forepaugh has been apparently enjoying usually good health for some time and has been engaged negotiating, through one of his agents in England, for the sale of his mammoth circus to an English syndicate. It is reported that the English syndicate has agreed upon Mr. Forepaugh's figures for the sale of his circus.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 18.—The following deaths from la grippe yesterday are reported: At Dover, N. H., Thomas Bunker, who served in the navy before and during the rebellion, aged sixty. At Fall River, Mass., the fifth and last of the children of William and Mary Boyle of pneumonia, resulting from grip, four of the Boyle children, who also died of the grippe, were buried, Thursday. At Laconia, N. H., and at Lake Village, N. H., one death each.

From Norwalk, Conn., it is reported that la grippe, after having been epidemic there for over a month, is rapidly disappearing, and the same state of affairs in neighboring towns.

ROME, Jan. 18.—M. Mariania, the French ambassador to Rome is dead. He had been suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—The death rate showed a gratifying falling off yesterday from the previous day. The total number of deaths reported at the health department was 80 as against 128 on Thursday, and 86 on Wednesday. The total for the week thus far is 569, and Health Commissioner Wickersham calculates by noon to-day it will have reached 600, or an annual rate per thousand of twenty-eight and a fraction.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—Judge Nicholas Longworth, a prominent citizen, died this morning of pneumonia. He left property worth several millions of dollars.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 18.—United States Minister Lincoln has started for London with his son, who is convaleacent.

SCHNECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Jay Westinghouse, president of the Westinghouse company of this city, large manufacturers of agricultural implements, and oldest brother of George Westinghouse, of air-brake fame, died at his home on Washington avenue yesterday morning, aged fifty-three years.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Henry Cohen, proprietor of the Central Park riding academy, dropped pead at the academy, on Fifty-ninth street, shortly after 10 a. m. to-day.

A LOVE ROMANCE.

Miss Mayes Deserts the Choice of Her Parents at the Altar and Flees With Her Lover.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 18.—Flora Mayes was to have been married at her father's residence near Randolph, Thursday noon, to Wm. Merriwether, a rich farmer. Mr. Merriwether is fifty-two years of age and a widower. Miss Mayes is nineteen.

The match was arranged by the girl's parents, much against her will. She was in love with a young man named Geo. Church. Merriwether had arrived at the Mayes residence and the guests were assembled in the parlor awaiting the appearance of the bride.

When Church arrived Miss Mayes saw him coming and in her bridal dress ran to the gate to meet him.

The young lovers leaped into Merriwether's carriage, which was standing at the gate, drove to Centerville and were married. They were hotly pursued, but Merriwether's horses were the fastest in that section, and the young lovers were man and wife half an hour before the pursuing party arrived at Centerville.

WILL STRIKE AGAIN.

All the Freight Conductors on the Mackey Road May Go Out.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Jan. 18.—When W. H. Dean, a freight conductor, was given a train on Mackey's Evansville and Terre Haute road yesterday, the brakemen refused to go out with him. In the recent settlement of the strike on this road the strikers asked for the discharge of Dean. It has been claimed this was granted, as Dean has not been at work since. A committee went to Evansville yesterday to ask an explanation of Mr. Mackey. It is not unlikely that the freight conductors will all strike again. Dean's offense was in offering to take out a train during the strike.

POISON IN THE SOUP.

This is What a Girl Did Because Her Mistress Reproved Her.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the police court yesterday a young colored girl named Laura Rollins was charged with assault, with intent to kill Mrs. George Freiderick, who lives at 321 East Capitol street. The girl was employed as a domestic in the family.

Wednesday Mrs. Freiderick had occasion to reprove her. A little later she saw the girl put something in the soup, and when it was served there were lumps of grayish matter floating on the surface. The soup was not eaten, and a druggist who made a rough analysis of it said that it contained "Rough on Rats." The girl was arrested.

GAMBLING DID IT.

A Young Lawyer Proves an Embezzler and Skips.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 18.—A sensational case came to light yesterday, Homer DeWolf, a brilliant local lawyer, was charged with appropriating $2,000, from a widow as well as defrauding several prominent citizens. His case is before the grand jury. Gambling and high living are the cause of his ruin. DeWolf is missing and is supposed to be in the east, although efforts to locate him have proved futile.

FATAL ACCIDENTS.

An Explosion at Chicago--Death by Gas in Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Another fatal boiler explosion occurred this morning in the old Wisconsin Central depot freight house, at Polk street and Fifth avenue. About 3 o'clock this morning Geo. W. Wiley, the night watchman, entered the engine room and started a fire under the boiler. For some reason the boiler exploded. Pieces of steel and copper were hurled in every direction and some of them struck Wiley, cutting off, almost cleanly, the top of his head and crushing his legs and arms. Death must have been instantaneous.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Christopher Hall, of Parson, and her four children were yesterday morning found in their room unconscious, having been overcome by the gas from a stove. Two of the children will die.

St. Paul M. E. church—The revival meeting now being held is growing in interest with each passing evening. Last evening the attendance was large and a meeting of wonderful spiritual power was held. The pastor is ably supported in the work by the entire membership of the church. Some excellent workers from abroad are expected in a few days. An all-day's meeting will be held to-morrow, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning and close with the revival service at night. The people can come at any hour of the day and enjoy a service. The services to-morrow will be held for the salvation of souls. The pastor, Rev. M. C. Cooper, will be assisted by several of the earnest Christian workers in the city.

The first service in the new audience room of the Baptist church will be held the first Sunday in Feb[illegible]

BLAINE'S SON.

The Funeral of Walker Blaine Occurred at the City of Washington This Morning.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The funeral of Walker Blaine took place this morning. The day was bright and the air cool. A large number of the friends of the Blaine family, members of the diplomatic corps, and people in official life attended the funeral.

A private ceremony was held at the home of Secretary Blaine on Lafayette Square at 10:30. The President and Mrs. Harrison, the members of the cabinet, E. W. Halford, and several members of the diplomatic corps and some intimate friends of the family attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. At the conclusion of the private services the remains were taken to the Church of the Covenant, followed by the family and friends, in carriages.

The funeral cortege arrived at the Church of the Covenant at 11:15, and, preceeded by Rev. Dr. Hamlim, at once passed into the church. The remains, which were encased in a handsome black coffin, were borne by the pall-bearers, Wm. F. Wharton, John Davis, S. A. Brown, Marceluis Bailey, M. L. Ruth, A. F. Jenks, F. B. Loring, and Wm. Haywood. After the pall-bearers came Mr. and Mrs. Blaine, James G. Blaine, jr., and the Misses Blaine, Mr. Emmons Blaine and wife, and Miss Dodge, relatives of the family; the President and Mrs. Harrison, Vice-President and Mrs. Morton, Secretary and Mrs. Windom, Secretary and Mrs. Proctor, Secretary and Mrs. Noble, Secretary and Mrs. Tracy, Attorney General and Mrs. Miller, and Secretary and Mrs. Rusk.

Dr. Hamlin then ascended the pulpit and read the funeral service, concluding with a prayer, in which he referred to the loss the family had sustained and prayed God to comfort them in their sorrow. They had, he said, lost the "light of their eyes." A life so beautiful, so pure, so exalted had gone out. At the conclusion of the prayer, the Lord's prayer was recited, the congregation joining with the minister. Benediction was then pronounced and the remains were placed in the hearse and the funeral procession proceeded to Oak Hill cemetery, where the interment took place.

The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Around the altar were flowers, potted plants and evergreens in great profusion. Many prominent people in social and diplomatic and political life, were present.

The state department was closed during the time of the funeral, and the officials and clerks attended in a body. The department of justice, adjoining the Blaine residence, was closed from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

FIVE KILLED.

A Bad Wreck on the C., H. & D. Road Near Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 18.—The vestibule train from Chicago on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, ran into the Glendale accommodation at College Hill junction, at 10 o'clock, last night, and a terrible wreck followed.

There were three passenger cars of the Glendale train containing about seventy-five people. The locomotive of the Chicago vestibuled train ran half way through the rear car of the accommodation, piling the cars in a heap and setting them on fire. The locomotive of the accommodation was not derailed. The fire department and patrol wagons were called from Cincinnati and the fire was extinguished.

Three bodies were taken from the wreck last night and others this morning, and afterward taken to the hospital. The following is a list of the killed: John Wilson, insurance agent 227 Main street, this city, lived at Winton Place; Charles Keller, hardware merchant, Winton Place; F. W. Witherbee, conductor, of Toledo, Ohio; William Planitz, a plumber, of Carthage; and Baggagemaster James Staley, of Toledo. died after being taken to the hospital.

ENGLISH MONEY

Purchases Six of the Leading Breweries of Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Ohio., Jan. 18.—It was ascertained yesterday that six of the leading breweries of this city had been purchased by an English syndicate, the price paid being $975,000. They are the Stoppel, Muth, Schneider, the Cleveland Brewing company, Oppman and Baehr. The remaining four breweries want $4,200,000, and it is probable that all will be sold during the coming week except Leisses and Schlatters.

CONGRESS.

A Bill Introduced to Locate the World's Fair at St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the house to-day Mr. Frank, of Missouri, introduced a bill locating the world's fair at St. Louis and creating a corporation to carry on the same. Referred to special committee. On motion of Mr. Mason, of Illinois, the committee investigating the ballot-box forgery was permitted to sit during the sessions of the house.

After routine business, the house went into a committee of the whole on the Oklahoma town site bill.

DR. JAMES S. GREGG.

This afternoon a telegram was received from C. E. Wright, superintendent of the insane asylum, stating that Dr. James S. Gregg had just died at that institution, at Indianapolis.

Dr. Gregg was taken to the institution about six months ago, suffering from insanity, brought on by his disease paralysis.

He was a prominent Mason and G. A. R. man and one of the best known physicians in this part of the state.

His family reside in this city and he will be brought here for burial.

Dr. Gregg was born at Delaware, Ohio, and was educated in the leading colleges of the country.

He came to Fort Wayne soon after the close of the war, having served as surgeon in the army.

He was ex-president of the state medical society. A wife, and young son and daughter survive him. He was fifty-eight years old.

The funeral will be under the auspices of the Masons of the city.

A ROADMASTER RETIRES.

John Wagoner, Who Laid the First Rails of the Muncie.

Mr. John C. Wagoner will shortly retire from the position of roadmaster of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad. Mr. Wagoner has been connected with this road twenty-four years.

Having been engaged in the construction of the old Muncie road, he laid the first rails put down on the line. His record is that of long years' faithful faithful service and he has the name of being one of the best trackmen in the country.

Mr. Wagoner has not decided upon his future course. He lives with his family on North Calhoun street in Bloomingdale.

LOCAL LINES.

There was no court in the circuit court to-day.

I. M. Jones and J. L. Patty, Lima, Ohio, are at the Wayne.

Mr. Charles DeRome is recovering from an attack la grippe.

Mr. Lipes Thieme will go to Chicago next week to attend a meeting of cutters.

Mrs. Lambert, of West Main street, is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

The first annual reception and ball of the Excelsior club will be held at Standard hall, January 22.

Anna E. Cardrey enters suit in the circuit court against Lee and Felian Slataper, petition for partition of real estate. A. H. Bittinger is attorney for the plaintiff.

Messrs. P. A. Randall and Harry Hanna are home from Chicago, where they completed arrangements to buy the Loree tract for the Land and Improvement company for $75,000.

Mr. Frederick Weatherby, formerly of this city but of late years a conductor on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road in Ohio, had a wreck last night in which he was burned to death.

Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted in the circuit court to-day by Celia Voirel against Frank Voirel, sr., and Cara Voirel, who it is alleged are illegally restraining John and Eddie Voirel, the plaintiff's children.

The representatives of the Land and Improvement company to-day agreed to withdraw their petition for right of way across the Columbia street bridge, providing the Fort Wayne Street railway construct a line over there, the work to commence in ninety days. The street car company were considering the matter at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Last Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Mr. Frank Stier gathered at his residence, on Madison street, and tendered him a little surprise, it being his birthday. He was presented with a beautiful chair. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mettler, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Halstein, Mr. and Mrs. App, Miss C. Stier, Mr. C. Zimmerman, Mr. Krull, Mr. Heit, Mr. Joe Wike, Mr. Geo. Miller and others.

"THE LITTLE GERMAN."

Kunze, the Cronin Suspect, Released and Will Be on Exhibition in a Dime Museum.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—John W. Kunze, the lucky one of the Cronin suspects, whom the jury awarded three years in the penitentiary, was released from the the county jail this morning. His release was due to the efforts of a dime museum manager, who signed Kunze's bonds, and the little German, in return for the favor, will appear on exhibition at the museum of his benefactor.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Jan. 18.—John Webb, who made the murderous assault on Thomas G. McCaust on the night of October 28, was yesterday sentenced to thirty-five years in the penitentiary. He was at once taken out of town to escape the fury of a mob.

THE EVANSVILLE FLOOD.

The River Still Rising and Much Suffering Caused.

EVANSVILLE, Jan. 18.—The river is still rising at the rate of over one half an inch per hour, and at 9 o'clock last night registered 37 2-10 feet on the guage. The mail packets are experiencing a great deal of trouble in delivering the mail. At some points the water has reached a height which will not permit them to land, and there are now but few landings where they can transact business.

Information from Green river last night was that the stream and its tributaries are still rising and causing great damage to property. Reports from Wabash and White rivers are that they are slowly receding on the upper portions, but are still rising slowly below Grayville. A great number of people, who have been forced to leave their homes, are suffering for the want of food and from the cold weather.

A NEW STREET RAILWAY.

W. T. Abbott and Others File a Petition for Right of Way.

W. T. Abbott, August Schele, A. H. Carrier, C. L. Centlivre, and Winch & Sons filed a petition with the county commissioners for the right of way of a new street railway to be owned and operated by a stock company of which the petitioners are principals.

The projected line is intended to commence at the intersection of Raymond and Gertrude streets in Abbott's addidition, and follow a course west on Raymond to Home; south on Home to Pontiac; west on Pontiac to Wayne Trace; thence to Walton avenue, near the east yards, and the New Haven gravel road.

The line lays in Adams township and is out of the city. It is asserted that the scheme will be accomplished. Should the line be built a sanitarium will be built at the Abbott mineral well. It will boom that portion of the city.

URGING A SELECTION.

The G. A. R. Posts of This City Getting Support to Send the Encampment Here.

The committees to encourage the selection of this city as a suitable and desirable place to hold the next G. A. R. encampment is meeting with encouragement. The committees consist of four comrades from each of the posts in this city, of which there are three, Sion S. Bass, Anthony Wayne, and George Humphrey.

George D. Adams, chief money order clerk at the postoffice, is chairman of the joint committee. He is now addressing the five hundred posts of the state with an object of getting an opinion from each one. He sets forth in his appeal that Indianapolis has for a long term of years succeeded in securing the encampment; that there is a demand a different meeting place be selected every year for the convenience of the posts of the state instead of having a permanent point. The committee shows that other cities are equally entitled and fully as capable of taking care of the encampment as Indianapolis.

One thing is certain. Northern Indiana is heart and soul with the action. Another is also positive that inasmuch as Fort Wayne posts inaugurated the movement she is entitled to it. This city asks nothing of the encampment of 1891 and after that she is ready to assist in securing it for any other city which is entitled to it.

There is no precedent established in any G. A. R. encampment in the United States where one city is the selection year after year and it seems a sad commentary on other enterprising cities of the state that they should be forgotten in the excitement. But enterprising efforts will bring it here.

The Business Men's exchange are heart and hand with these committees who are striving so earnestly to accomplish something that will be for public good. The common council will extend all that can possibly lend to the entertainment and comfort of the "boys who wear the badge."

Give Fort Wayne the next G. A. R. encampment.

Mr. J. V. Hiler will go down to Van Buren, Grant county, next Monday to organize an assembly of the Knights of Labor.

BRAIN AND BRAWN.

The Enjoyments and Benefits of a Gymnasium Witnessed by a Reporter.

In anticipation of the coming gymnastic exhibition on the evening of the 23d of this month by the members of the City Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, it may not be untimely to set forth a few facts pertinent to this work. The time when the only gymnasts or athletes were those of the circus or prize ring has passed.

The fact that properly directed exercises will accomplish results when the medical profession is powerless to accomplish is no longer doubted. The object sought in true physical education is not first the possession of Herculean muscle, but the attainment of perfect physical health and with this foremost the other advantages will follow in their order.

Somewhere between the limp body of the helpless invalid and the brawny gladiator of the arena lies the strength which men, and women, too, want. They want enough to give each a well developed body.

Right here in this city there have been under instruction of Prof. Gage several classes in physical culture. In the roomy and well appointed gymnasium room a SENTINEL reporter has been treated to some splendid exhibitions of skill in agility and strength by persons who a few months ago were too weak to "skin the cat."

The gymnasium is a boon to the clergyman, the business man, the clerk and many others whose constitution lacks healthful vigor.

But, aside from the physical benefit derived, the mental impetus is astonishing. No man knows what he has missed until he begins a gymnasium course.

IN SOUTH WAYNE.

A Sentinel Reporter Saunters Through That Thriving Burg.

The little town of South Wayne, thanks to the pride of its inhabitants, is becoming more attractive every day. The improvements are going on with remarkable rapidity.

A large number of buildings are going up next season. M. S. Mahurin will erect a handsome stone residence on South Fairfield avenue.

The timber is being cut and thinned out on the Reid property around the high banks and the property will be laid out into acre lots for residence building. Professor Dryer will be the first to build on this property in the spring.

The surveyor has been ordered to survey for sidewalks on all principal streets and for the grading of streets, the work to be prosecuted in the spring.

The tax levy is ten cents on each $100 valuation.

The present trustees draw no salary. They insist that they will not run the town in debt.

Lumber has been purchased to build fifty new street crossings.

STARTLED THE GAMS.

Chief Wilkinson and a Posse Visit Two Gambling Houses.

Last night Chief Wilkinson and a posse visited two gambling houses, the fruits of which was the arrest of eight gamblers all of whom were professionals.

At 27 Calhoun street were Lewis Oliver and Frank Bare.

Each paid a fine of $19.50.

POLICE COURT.

William Jones, arrested by Officer Kramer for vagrancy.

James Maguire arrested by Chief Wilkinson for drunkenness.

George Murray arrested by Lieutenant Fuchshober.

The entire party went to jail.

Death of Mrs. Fry.

Yesterday afternoon, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Sine, 77 Dawson street, occurred the death of Mrs. Mary Fry, aged eighty years. The deceased was a pioneer citizen, and was greatly esteemed and loved by a large circle of friends.

Her husband has been dead for some years, but several children survive her; among whom are: Mrs. Sine, of this city; Mrs. Mauk, of Plymouth; Henry Fry, of St. Louis; Merritt Fry, of Moberly, Mo., and two daughters living in the west.

Jacob Hartman, the retiring president of St. Julian Council, No. 89, yesterday received a deputy state chancellor's commission authorizing and empowering him to institute subordinate councils of the Catholic Benevolent Legion. His first installation of new officers will be at Decatur, Ind., January 29. Mr. Hartman is receiving congratulations on the strength of his appointments.

Scratched 28 Years.

Cured by Cuticura.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I took ...... and ...... Sarsaparillas over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors, and no cure. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them were three boxes of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00, you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

SATURDAY, JAN. 18, 1890.

SENATOR BRICE was given an ovation at Lima, Ohio, Thursday night.

THREE of the members of the Ohio legislature have died this week and two others are seriously ill.

GROVER CLEVELAND was the choice of the majority of the editors who met at Indianapolis the other day to attend the State Democratic Editorial association, for president in 1892.

THE Northern Indiana Poultry association will hold its annual meeting at Huntington on January 29, and continue in session a week. Poultry fanciers all over the state are interested in this meeting.

EXPERTS now place the actual wealth of the United States at $61,459,000,000. Its property assessed for taxation upon the duplicates is $23,719,000,000. Some idea of this amount can be had by remembering the fact that it is greater than the wealth of the entire world 150 years ago.

THE first number of Hoffman's Catholic Directory and clergy list quarterly for 1890 is out. It gives the following figures for the two Indiana dioceses: Vincennes: Population, 86,183; priests, 182; churches, 157; chapels, 16; children at school, 13,248; clerical students, 30. Fort Wayne: Population, 64,000, priests, 119; churches, 126; chapels, 19; children at school, 7,200; clerical students, 20.

THE following officers were elected at the new formed alliance of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, held at Philadelphia yesterday: President, H. C. Campbell, of Allegheny; vice-president at large, Mrs. J. Harry White, of Indiana; recording secretary, Mrs. M. S. Shepard, of Tioga; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ellen M. Watson, of Philadelphia; treasurer, Mrs. Lizzie Phillips, of Chester.

THE young king of Spain, who has been pronounced out of danger, is not a pretty child. He is totally bald and has no eye-brows nor eye-lashes. He is nervous and irritable, and inherits an epileptic temperment. His father was a dissipated man, and the child shows the effect of his paternal ancestor's folly. His mother is not a handsome woman by any means, and her son has the plain looks of the Hapsburgs.

A MEETING of the Johnstown flood relief commission was held at Philadelphia this week. A trust company will administer the annuity fund, whereby 322 orphaned children under sixteen will each receive annually $50 until they reach that age. The secretary's report showed that there are estimated to have been drowned in the disaster 2,280 persons; recovered, 1,011. The total contributions amounted to $2,903,072.68, and there is in the hands of the commission an unexpended balance of $70,631.49.

THE year 1888 was a year of plenty in most respects, though the wheat crop was a good deal below the average for recent years. But, according to Bradstreet's, 1889 was a year of still greater plenty. The wheat crop is placed at 490,500,000 bushels, which was next to the largest in the history of the country and nearly 76,000,000 bushels in excess of the crop of 1888. The crop of Indian corn is placed at 2,112,000,000 bushels, or 114,000,000 in excess of that of 1888; oat crop, 751.000,000 bushels, a gain of 50,000,000 bushels; barley crop, 65,000,000 bushels, a gain of 5,000,000; rye crop, 25,000,000, or the same as in 1888.

THE most phenomenal yield of corn ever produced in America has been awarded the prize of $500 offered by the American Agriculturist for the largest crop of shelled corn grown on one acre in 1889. The crop was within a fraction of 255 bushels, green weight, which shrunk to 239 bushels when kiln dried, and when chemically dried contained 217 bushels. The South Carolina state board of agriculture doubled the prize, making the award $1,000 in all. This crop was grown by Z. J. Drake, of Marlboro county, S. C. It is nearly twice as large as the largest authenticated crop ever before reported. The $500 awarded for the largest yield of wheat last year goes to Henry F. Burton, of Salt Lake City, Utah, for a yield of eighty bushels on one acre.

DANIEL WEBSTER MARTIN has been appointed postmaster at Oakford, also known as Fairfield Station, in Howard county, and the Kokomo Dispatch recalls that he was formerly postmaster at that point, and was removed in April 1887, under the Cleveland administraiton, the commission being issued to John W. Croussore. When the official envelope arrived Mr. Martin chucked it into an unused pigeon-hole and there it remained until August, when a new commission was issued. This shared the fate of the first until January, 1888, when they were returned to Washington indorsed, "No such person getting mail at this office." Another special envelope was started out, and a special agent was detailed to see that it was delivered. When Croussore applied for his mail he met with the formal answer, but the special agent took possession of the office, found the letter and placed Martin under arrest and Judge Woods afterward released him under $500 bond. Still later Mr. Croussore did not press the prosecution and it was dropped. The Dispatch claims that had Mr. Martin been prosecuted he would not only have been fined, but the penalty would have precluded his reappointment to his old place.

LOCAL GOSSIP.

JUDGE CHAPIN.—The longer I live the more profoundly am I impressed with the unreliability of testimony that is offered in court and which might seem to persons of less extended observation as conclusive. Only the other day two farmers of the northern portion of the county swore with great earnestness exactly in opposition to each other in regard to the payment of a note. Now they are justly esteemed among the best residents of Allen county and their word would ordinarily be accepted as true. In this case one of them must have been mistaken—which one I left the jury to decide.

CHARLES E. GRAVES, SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS.—Managers of insurance companies frequently express surprise at the comparatively small amount of insurance carried by Fort Wayne merchants and manufacturers. In most other cities of this size insurance to the amount of 75 or 80 per cent. of the valuation is readily placed by the agents, but here there are very many who do not carry 40 per cent. of the valuation, and some carry even less. This practice of dangerous economy has come in vogue because the city has never had a large conflagration, but that it will always escape no man may say. Whatever is worth owning is worth insuring.

MANAGER TILLO, FORT WAYNE NEWSPAPER UNION.—The system of stereotyping selected matter for use by the newspapers has many reasons to commend it to the general public. It serves all classes of newspapers and their patrons excellently well and provides more "matter" to the publisher than he would care to pay to "set up." More than this, it makes possible the publication of a really good paper in a very small town, where the patronage to be expected is necessarily limited, and the editor, who used to be entirely occupied with his work, is now concerned chiefly about his local page and advertisements and generally has plenty of time left to run for postmaster, school trustee or the legislature.

A LADY—While visiting in Chicago last week I attended the theater quite often, and noticed a very sensible fashion the ladies had of wearing theater waists, or jackets. Handsome dresses are crushed by passing through the crowded aisles and with sitting a whole evening in a narrow chair, and all to no purpose, too, for really, the waist is the only part of the dress that is visible when the wraps are thrown aside. Any plain black silk, or black cashmere skirt answers the purpose. The jackets were made in a variety of shapes, some of the prettiest being worn with a belt and buckle. They were in all the fashionable shades of green, red, and the always popular tan, and were even elaberately trimmed with gold and silver cord, giving a very rich and dressy appearance to the whole toilet.

CITY CIVIL ENGINEER BRACKENRIDGE.—Certain important additions, involving new ideas of drainage, must shortly be made to our sewer system. From about the line of Suttenfield street in the Tenth ward, north to the St. Marys and Maumee rivers there is a natural trend to the land, which makes drainage comparatively easy. But Suttenfield street is at the summit of a "divide," and beyond that thoroughfare the surface of the ground dips as you go south, and an effectual means of drainage in this rapidly growing portion of the city is not at hand. Temporary relief may be had by deepening gutters here and there and carrying off the water by surface drainage, but before long the Walton avenue sewer must be extended to a considerable distance to the south, and perhaps an entirely new sewer constructed.

COL. R. S. ROBERTSON—The contemplated improvement of the tract of land immediately northwest of the Old Fort may lead to some discoveries of vast historical interest. Somewhere on this property Little Turtle, the greatest chieftain of the Miami nation, lies buried and by his side the sword presented to him by General Washington, together with numerous medals that were given to him upon the occasion of his visit to Philadelphia. Here also is the grave of The Toad, nephew of Little Turtle, and like him a chief. With The Toad was buried a considerable sum in gold and silver. The two graves have never been found, but if they should be the precious relics should be preserved. They should not be allowed to leave the city, but should find a permanent place in a public museum, or at least in some local private collection.

C. L. HILL—I began keeping a book store in Fort Wayne in 1848 and cannot help noting the difference in the books that were called for then and now. At that early day there were no publications of a trashy character. They were not thought worth while to expose for sale and of cheap literature, magazines and newspapers, there was but a small supply. The result was that people did not acquire a taste for the sentimental and romantic, but purchased and eagerly read the standard writers. There were many readers of Shakespeare, Byron, and Moore who could quote pages of of their writings, while the histories, such as Hume's, and the best work on theology, geology, political economy, and other branches of knowledge were always in popular demand. How few read them now! We become acquainted with the beauties of Shakespeare only as we hear them from the mouth of an actor, while the old instructors like Hugh Miller and Adam Smith are nearly forgotten.

A COMMERCIAL TRAVELER—Speaking of railway accidents my experience in the Ashtabula horror may interest you. I was a passenger on the Lake Shore railway train which plunged to the bottom of that dreadful abyss. Don't shudder, but hear me out. Just before the train reached the bridge I was seized with a desire for a drink of liquor and confided my wants to the conductor. He told me that at the next station, the last before the train entered upon the high trestle, there was a saloon conveniently near the depot, to which thirsty passengers often resorted. The moment the train halted I dashed down the street and was in the act of crooking my elbow when I heard, and in a moment afterwards saw, the train pull out. I sat down on a trunk on the platform and inwardly cursed that conductor. Within a few moments word came that the train had crashed through the Ashtabula bridge. Then I thought that I had time to go back to that saloon for another drink. There is no moral in this, however, which drinking men may comfort themselves with and I have long since given up my bibulous habits.

TREASURER ROGERS, OF N. G. OLDS & SONS.—There are many good features in the combination of factories, such as ours, in the American Wheel company, and the benefits are shared by employes as well as employers. For example: We receive an order for some heavy truck wheels, which we do not make. The order is turned over to the American Wheel company and is filled from a factory whose specialty is heavy work. This factory in its turn receives an order for light carriage wheels. It may be turned over to us. Thus are all the members in the American Wheel company substantially benefited and the men are made more certain of constant employment and good wages.

JUDGE CHENEY.—There is a big crash coming in business circles in this country and it cannot much longer be delayed. It will result from the unequal division of property among the people, the aggrandizement of the few, the impoverishment of the many. Speculation has run to such lengths that men are no longer satisfied, in their haste to be rich, with the methods which brought a fair competency and continued happiness to their fathers. The concentration of great wealth in the hands of a few precipitated the downfall of the Roman empire. It is the most serious political question in England to day and the strength of our republican form of government will be sorely tried by it.

JUDGE TAYLOR, MISSISSIPPI RIVER COMMISSIONER.—The subjugation of the Mississippi to the purposes of safe and uninterrupted commerce is beset with difficulties met with in no other large stream on the face of the earth, the Nile possibly excepted. The waters of the Mississippi are heavily charged with alluvial substances, or silt, which the mighty current scours up from the bottom and banks of the river. Once stop the impetuous flow of the stream, and it at once begins to lay down this alluvial load, just as a sediment will settle in the bottom of an impure glass of water that has stood for a time. The result is a bar, then an island or other equally important change in the character of the channel. The only good theory of management of the great stream is to so confine its bank and direct its course that it will be never still, but always engaged in clearing its muddy beds of the obstacles that boatmen find so dangerous.

ENGINEER THOMAS TELLY.—Some railway accidents have a very funny side to them. In my long experience as an engineer I never got off the track but once. I was coming west on a cold winter night and was a little late when I reached Arcola. A long freight train had just got onto the siding and I was signalled to come ahead. I put my hand on the throttle, let her drop a notch and was running at a fifty mile pace when all of a sudden the engine left the track, ran out onto the frozen ground, through a fence, up a hill and there stood erect, puffing and blowing as if surprised at the strange situation it found itself in. The fireman and I looked at each other and each bust into a laugh. But there was a serious side to the occurrence. The coaches had not followed the engine, but had dashed into the freight train and the express messenger was badly injured.

ELDER ANTRUP, SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—As I go about this new house of worship of ours I cannot but think how different it is from the churches to which I was accustomed when a child. They were cold and cheerless, barren of all ornamentation and the services were conducted so differently from the hearty worship of God that we have of late become accustomed to. A church was a church and nothing more. Now-a-days we seek to make our houses of worship attractive by combining religion with the highest grade of social pleasures. Here is our lecture room which with its spacious gallery may be used for sociables; here is our well-stocked library full of interesting and instructive books for our little ones and here is our kitchen, closets, cloak room and every needed convenience. Religion should be made inviting and the house of God should be the dearest spot on earth to those who love the good, the bright and the beautiful.

PARIS, Jan. 17.—The Figaro says that the Portuguese government complain to Prince Bismarck that Great Britain has violated the treaty by the policy pursued in its dispute with Portugal. The same paper says that Portugal has asked that a conference of the powers be convened to discuss the African question.

LISBON, Jan. 17.—The feeling against the English here is very bitter. The English residents have been made the victims of public animosity to such an extent that it is proposed to send a deputation to Lord Salisbury urging him to adopt a more conciliatory policy. Many English employes have been dismissed.

INDIANA POLITICS.

The Coming Election in This State Will be the Most Interesting of the Year.

St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Apart from the congressional contests, the most interesting election which will take place in any state this year is the one which will occur in Indiana. A legislature and some minor state officers are to be chosen. The legislature will select a successor to Daniel W. Voorhees in the United States senate. The contest for the legislature will be the most stubbornly-fought and the most exciting part of the canvass. There are several aspirants for Voorhees' place, while the "Tall Sycamore" himself is anxious to secure a renomination and re-election. All of these will take a prominent part in the canvass. On the republican side the desire for victory and the determination to secure it are equally earnest and manifest.

Indiana for many years past has deserved the reputation which it has acquired of being the most doubtful of all the debatable states. While it has declared for the democrats oftener than for the republicans in the past twenty years, the margin for either of the parties has been particularly small. The highest plurality which it has given to any presidential candidate since 1872 was 6,641, which it gave to Garfield in 1880. All that it gave to Harrison, its most distinguished and popular citizen, in 1888 was 2,348. It is a state which no party can count absolutely on gaining in any particular canvass. Neither party is at any time justified in claiming it or in conceding it to the opposition until the last ballot is counted. This year there is an additional element of interest in the canvass from the fact that it is the president's own state, and the vote will be received by the country as a sort of plebiscitum on his policy.

TAR-OID

NATURE HAS NO BETTER REMEDY

Than this New Compound of Tar for Wounds, Burns, Sores, Piles, Salt Rheum, Eczema, and Coughs, Croup, Scrofula, Ulcers, Varicose Veins, Bronchitis, and Consumption.

TAR-OID CO., Sole Props., Chicago, Ill., U. S. A.

TAR-OID must not be confounded with the cheap remedies which are prepared on the theory that Skin Diseases are caused by impure blood, which is not true. They have their cause in a want of vital action in the skin. TAR-OID restores this action, hence it cures every form of Skin Disease, also sores, burns, etc. It is soothing and wonderfully healing—gratifying results follow in every case. It is harmless and can be used with perfect safety by any one. It is superior to all other remedies. There is positively nothing else like it.

TAR-OID is a sure cure for piles. It never fails. We warrant a cure or refund the money. It gives immediate relief. It is perfectly safe, yet powerful in its action.

and thirst for pleasure. The ruling passion of the human family. In grasping after riches the brain is taxed, the nervous system strained. In the pursuit of pleasure the body is tortured by fashion's despotic sway; the hours designed for repose are devoted to exhausting revelry; the stomach is ruthlessly imposed upon; pure water, the natural drink for all created beings, is ignored, and liquid fire is substituted until, ere we are aware of it, disease has fixed its iron grasp upon us. Then we look for the "remedy." To the victim of these follies, we commend Dr. Tutt's Liver pills. The News of the Day as It is Found Around the Busy Centers of the City.

The electric light works pay their employes Monday.

Nat Miller, fireman at the Electric light works, is on the sick list.

J. Polly, the elevator boy at the electric light works, is on the sick list.

The open winter has been favorable to the workingmen in very many respects.

Peter Harper, of the Pittsburg machines shops, is off duty on account of illness.

The machinists in the Pittsburg shops work four nights a week until 9:30 o'clock.

H. H. Doebler, of the Pennsylvania company, has returned from a visit at Chicago.

Henry Miller, one of the oldest machinists in the Pittsburg shops, is on the sick list.

E. B. Lepper, of the electric light light works, has returned to work after an illness.

The Pittsburg pay-car did not come in until late yesterday afternoon. It goes west this afternoon.

The sick list in the manufacturing establishments of the city during the last few weeks has been very large.

Henry Grush, of the East Pittsburg car shops, who was injured some time ago, returned to work yesterday.

Geo. Neidhammer is acting foreman at the electric light works during the absence of Supt. Chas. Hilton and Foreman Chas. Knothe.

John Slater, of the blacksmith department of the Pittsburg shops, is being urged to be a candidate for justice of the peace in the spring.

Traveling Auditor Heckman, of the electric light works, has returned from a six weeks trip, during which he visiting many large plants in the east.

Henry Wimmer, of the Bass works, had his watch stolen the other day from his vest which was hung up on a hook while he was at work. There is no clue to the thief.

R. V. Dutcher, who for a number of years was employed as train dispatcher on the Wabash road at Peru, Ind., committed suicide at Herman, Dak., last week by shooting himself.

Since January 1 the Pennsylvania company has closed contracts for 30,000 tons of new steel rails, and the Union Pacific for 40,000 tons. The price ranged from $28 to $39 a ton.

La grippe is making bad work among railway telegraph operators, and superintendents of telegraph are experiencing considerable trouble in keeping the offices along the roads properly manned.

The railroad commissioners of New York recommend that railings be placed along the top of freight cars as a safeguard for employes in case of accident. They also advocate continuous train brakers.

The railroad commissioners of New York, in their annual report, say that heating trains by steam taken from the locomotive is an accomplished fact, but the present system works only fairly well. It seems, at times, quite difficult to control the temperature of coaches.

John J. Heaton took passage upon a Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville train some months ago, and claims that he lost a trunkful of goods valued at $200. He says that the railroad company will not make the loss good, and he has brought suit in the superior court at Indianapolis to enforce payment.

February 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad company will introduce a new feature on its limited trains. On each train between New York and Philadelphia an expert stenographer and type-writer will be carried for the service of passengers. A compartment is fitted up and arrangements made for mailing letters on the train.

John E. Ross, the passenger agent of the Pennsylvania road, entertained the following traveling passenger agents during his leisure hours yesterday: O. E. Jenkins, of the New York Central, J. A. Sheppard, of the Rock Island; O. Warner, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; H. A. Bonn, of the Topeka and Santa Fee; C. C. Mordaugh, of the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul.

H. A. Philley, chief clerk in Road Foreman of Engineers Polhamus' office, is interrupted in his work fifty times a day by men applying for situations as firemen on the Pennsylvania. He is a very busy man and to save time and the necessity of answering questions has posted up in conspicuous letters over his desk, this notice: "The road foreman is not it. Do not know when he will be in. He has all the firemen he wants at present."

Trainmen on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, between Findlay and Fostoria, are greatly disturbed over what they claim is the ghost of a dead freight conductor. The conductor was killed one night last November, about eight miles east of Findlay, by this train breaking into two sections in such manner that he was thrown to the track from the car on which he was standing and beheaded by the wheels before the train could be controlled.

Dr. J. M. Kells, the examining physician of the Pensylvania mutual relief association, reports fifty-eight employes of the Pennsylvania company in this city off duty on occount of illness. There are others, but all of these fifty-eight employes are members of the relief association and draw a certain allowance each day during their illness.

WORKMAN'S LIEN.

In the supreme court of the state, in the case of Wilcox vs. the Midland railroad company, the following decision of interest has been rendered:

The legislature intended, by the act of 1883, giving persons doing work upon a railroad or furnishing materials, a valid and effective lien, and the act of 1885 simply carries this intention into effect. The act of 1883 gave a lien upon a railroad and not upon mere parcels of it, as an isolated bridge or culvert or a single embankment or excavation.

2. Mechanics' liens are assignable.

3. A lien fastens upon an entire and continuous line of unfinished road and may be enforced in any one of the counties through which the road runs.

4. When a corporation having a line of railroad in operation to a town or city within a county contracts for a construction of a part of the road leading from such town or city to a point beyond the county limits, the contractors may acquire a lien upon the part which they construct or aid in constructing, although a portion of it lies within the county in which a part of the road is completed and in operation.

5. One notice filed in each of the proper counties will cover the entire line when it is included in one contract, and when the work has been done upon it and the materials furnished for it as a continuous line.

Mrs. Charles Kain, of St. Louis, who has been on a visit for several weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. Ed Clark, at Metamora, dropped dead at the dinner-table. Supposed to be heart disease, Edward Cohayne, a machinist of Richmond, died almost immediatly after reaching home yesterday noon, with heart disease. He was apparently in his usual health a half hour before, when he started home.

Mrs. Wilson, a woman of thirty-eight years, who was released from the Insane Asylum at Indianapolis last Saturday, committed suicide Tuesday night, at her home, in the southern part of Jackson county, killing herself with a shotgun.

Trains on the E. and I. have not yet crossed Eel river at Clay City for nearly two weeks, and trade is almost at a stand-still, as merchants can get neither freight nor express matter. The bridge is being repaired and trains will get over to-day.

James Thompson, of Edinburg, aged about twenty-two, is an inveterate cigarette smoker, from the effects of which he has absorbed so much poison that it has ulcerated his throat until it has been necessary to lance it several times. He is now lying in a critical condition.

Steve Curran, of Terre Haute, and Joe Dwyer, of Chicago, gave a six-round, four-ounce sparring match at Clay City Wednesday night. Curran got the worst of it. Such business is not popular there, and in consequence only about two dozen persons attended.

"Bud" Marksberry, a barkeeper at Greencastle, was severely cut in the forehead by "Ol" Cummings, of Quincy, in a quarrel over the price of a drink, and Cummings was knocked down and badly beaten in the scuffle. Cummings killed a brother of Marksberry's fifteen years ago.

James Milburn, a lad attending school southeast of Delphi, created no little sensation a few days ago. While sitting in the school room he amused himself by picking at a dynamite cartridge with a pin. The cartridge exploded, terribly mangling his hands and creating consternation in the school room. One scholar was so badly frightened that he had to be carried to his home.

Thursday evening, just before No. 8, the eastbound fast line on the Pennsylvania road, due here at 7:40 reached Richey station, a few miles east of this city, the watchman at that place discovered that the bolts which held the frog at the west end of the switch had been broken off, thereby making it dangerous for a train to pass over in safety. It is supposed that the bolts had been broken with an ax or some heavy instrument as they were badly bent near the broken places.

At the poultry show being held in Indianapolis, Mr. Hans Newell, of this city, has been awarded premiums as follows: Third on white-faced black Spanish cocks, first and fourth on hens, third on cockerels, third on pullets, and second on hen.

What is a cold in the head? Medical authorities say it is due to uneven clothing of the body, rapid cooling when in a perspiration, &c. The important point is, that a cold in the head is an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nose, which, when unchecked, is certain to produce a catarrhal condition —for catarrh is essentially a "cold," which nature is no longer able to "resolve" or throw off. Ely's Cream Balm has proved its superiority, and sufferers should resort to it before that common ailment becomes seated and ends in obstinate catarrh.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

George W. Childs has just bought 320 clocks. He paid $1,100 for one.

"STOP"—Nature Has a Cure.

EATON RAPIDS, Mich.

J. M. LOOSE RED CLOVER Co., Detroit:—Two years I was afflicted with a very severe attack of Erysipelas. After two physicians had used their treatment for several weeks and I continued growing blind, and in their diagnosis concluded that there was no earthly help or hope for me. I gave up, having tried all the remedies I knew or heard of. My neighbor, Mr. Miller, came in to see me one day, and said try Loose's Extract of Red Clover, as he had known of its working remarkable cures. I told him I had lost hope, that nothing would do me any good in the world. He insisted, and taking his hat went to the drug store and bought me one bottle and urged me to try it, which I did. Ten days afterward I sent for two more bottles, and it is wonderful how I improved. I continued using it and to-day I am better than I have been in years. No sign of erysipelas has shown itself and I heartily recommend it to suffering humanity as the greatest and best blood purifier in existence. Yours truly,

Bright eyes and dull; near sighted; far sighted; anybody (except those who won't, and they are worse than blind) can see at a glance the advantages gained by using PEARLINE. We do not expect everyone will see it, but millions do, and the number increases every day.

Delicate women and strong wonder at the amount of work they can do with the aid of PEARLINE—the time saved; the satisfactory results, and when they have used it for years they realize that everything that is washed or cleaned with PEARLINE lasts longer. This is very simple—PEARLINE does away with most of the rubbing—the greatest wear and tear that clothes are subjected to is the repeated rubbings necessary to keep them clean with ordinary soap. Your own interests should lead you to use it, if you do your own work and value your fine linens and flannels; the latter reason should surely convince any bright woman that it is to her interest to see that her servants use it. PEARLINE makes a saving all around.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not. JAMES PYLE, New York.

FRUIT HOUSE PRICES FOR 1890.

This year opens favorable for the people, so far as the Sugar Market is concerned. Last season the great sugar trust had their grip on the market and made it ruinous to the purchaser—so much so that Sugars were advanced in 60 days at least 50 per cent. This is now over—the Sugar Trust is broken and Sugars have declined to a point lower than they ever were—the last reduction is 1 cent per lb.

The high price of Coffee has induced a great many tc try Tea—and when it is considered that a pound of Tea can be had for the price of a pound of Coffee and that it will go twice as far, it is not to be wondered at that there is a great increase in our Tea Trade. The truth is we sell double the quantity we used to a few years ago. Our motto is selling large quantities at a small profit, for we purchase direct of the Importers and then in selling direct to our customers we save three profits—the speculator, jobber and the wholesale dealer. We sell a good, rich drawing Tea at 20c. lb., and one grade as low as 10c. lb.

The bride was becomingly attired in a very stylish traveling costume and the groom in conventional black. The attendants were Miss Kate Sweeney, sister of the bride, and Mr. Ferd Iche, of Plymouth. The bridal party left on the 12:58 train for Terre Haute, from which place they will go through the south and then settle in their western home in Oregon. They received a number of costly presents. Those who attended the wedding from abroad were Rev. J. F. Lang, of Fort Wayne; Miss Mamie Lang, of Delphos, cousins of the groom; Miss Kate Leighton, of Warsaw; Rev. Hartmann, of Monroeville; Miss Kate Sweeney and Miss Anna Farnan, of this city.

THAT TERRIBLE "GRIPPE"

The president of one of the leading New York Medical colleges, in conversation with the writer the other evening, said:

"La Grippe," the Russian influenza, that has caused so much talk, is a more severe affliction than people usually think. It arises mysteriously and appears to have its origin in the atmosphere. The last time it visited America was in 1803, and it came then, as now, from Asia. The name 'influenza,' comes from the suggestion that the malady was due to the 'influences' of the heavenly bodies, but more modern science has discovered that it is due to the changes in the electrical conditions. Whatever may be the cause, it is a strong congestion of the blood vessels and mucous membrane, principally in the head and throat, and nothing but strong stimulants will check this congestion and keep the blood actively circulating. For this purpose I know of nothing better than pure whisky, and I believe Duffy's Pure Malt to be the best and purest whiskey known to the world.

Formerly this influenza was said to precede an epidemic of the plague, and the person who was about to be taken with the latter, had as a preliminary, a fit of sneezing. Now it precedes a worse epidemic than the plague, namely, the terrible pneumonia. Its beginning is light but its ending is often terrible. Pains in the limbs, back, chest and head; a sore throat and lack of appetite; copious discharge at the nose: these are some of the symptoms of this dread disease. Upon the slightest approach of any of these symptoms, a nervous feeling, or lassitude, the sort should be had to a pure whiskey, which is the only certain means of breaking up this epidemic before it's cures hold upon the system. Check it when it has become started. Care should be taken however to secure only that which is pure. The above article [illegible]

FOREPAUGH HAS IT!

The Well-Known Showman Very Ill With La Grippe--The Malady's Deadly Work.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—Mr. Adam Forepaugh, the well-known circus man, is lying at his residence here, suffering from a very sudden and severe attack of influenza.

Mr. Forepaugh has been apparently enjoying usually good health for some time and has been engaged negotiating, through one of his agents in England, for the sale of his mammoth circus to an English syndicate. It is reported that the English syndicate has agreed upon Mr. Forepaugh's figures for the sale of his circus.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 18.—The following deaths from la grippe yesterday are reported: At Dover, N. H., Thomas Bunker, who served in the navy before and during the rebellion, aged sixty. At Fall River, Mass., the fifth and last of the children of William and Mary Boyle of pneumonia, resulting from grip, four of the Boyle children, who also died of the grippe, were buried, Thursday. At Laconia, N. H., and at Lake Village, N. H., one death each.

From Norwalk, Conn., it is reported that la grippe, after having been epidemic there for over a month, is rapidly disappearing, and the same state of affairs in neighboring towns.

ROME, Jan. 18.—M. Mariania, the French ambassador to Rome is dead. He had been suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—The death rate showed a gratifying falling off yesterday from the previous day. The total number of deaths reported at the health department was 80 as against 128 on Thursday, and 86 on Wednesday. The total for the week thus far is 569, and Health Commissioner Wickersham calculates by noon to-day it will have reached 600, or an annual rate per thousand of twenty-eight and a fraction.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—Judge Nicholas Longworth, a prominent citizen, died this morning of pneumonia. He left property worth several millions of dollars.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 18.—United States Minister Lincoln has started for London with his son, who is convalescent.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Jay Westinghouse, president of the Westinghouse company of this city, large manufacturers of agricultural implements, and oldest brother of George Westinghouse, of air-brake fame, died at his home on Washington avenue yesterday morning, aged fifty-three years.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Henry Cohen, proprietor of the Central Park riding academy, dropped pead at the academy, on Fifty-ninth street, shortly after 10 a. m. to-day.

A LOVE ROMANCE.

Miss Mayes Deserts the Choice of Her Parents at the Altar and Flees With Her Lover.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 18.—Flora Mayes was to have been married at her father's residence near Randolph, Thursday noon, to Wm. Merriwether, a rich farmer. Mr. Merriwether is fifty-two years of age and a widower. Miss Mayes is nineteen.

The match was arranged by the girl's parents, much against her will. She was in love with a young man named Geo. Church. Merriwether had arrived at the Mayes residence and the guests were assembled in the parlor awaiting the appearance of the bride.

When Church arrived Miss Mayes saw him coming and in her bridal dress ran to the gate to meet him.

The young lovers leaped into Merriwether's carriage, which was standing at the gate, drove to Centerville and were married. They were hotly pursued, but Merriwether's horses were the fastest in that section, and the young lovers were man and wife half an hour before the pursuing party arrived at Centerville.

WILL STRIKE AGAIN.

All the Freight Conductors on the Mackey Road May Go Out.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Jan. 18.—When W. H. Dean, a freight conductor, was given a train on Mackey's Evansville and Terre Haute road yesterday, the brakemen refused to go out with him. In the recent settlement of the strike on this road the strikers asked for the discharge of Dean. It has been claimed this was granted, as Dean has not been at work since. A committee went to Evansville yesterday to ask an explanation of Mr. Mackey. It is not unlikely that the freight conductors will all strike again. Dean's offense was in offering to take out a train during the strike.

POISON IN THE SOUP.

This Is What a Girl Did Because Her Mistress Reproved Her.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the police court yesterday a young colored girl named Laura Rollins was charged with assault, with intent to kill Mrs. George Freiderick, who lives at 321 East Capital street. The girl was employed as a domestic in the family.

Wednesday Mrs. Freiderick had occasion to reprove her. A little later she saw the girl put something in the soup, and when it was served there were lumps of grayish matter floating on the surface. The soup was not eaten, and a druggist who made a rough analysis of it said that it contained "Rough on Rats." The girl was arrested.

GAMBLING DID IT.

A Young Lawyer Proves an Embezzler and Skips.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 18.—A sensational case came to light yesterday, Homer DeWolf, a brilliant local lawyer, was charged with appropriating $2,000, from a widow as well as defrauding several prominent citizens. His case is before the grand jury. Gambling and high living are the cause of his ruin. DeWolf is missing and is supposed to be in the east, although efforts to locate him have proved futile.

FATAL ACCIDENTS.

An Explosion at Chicago--Death by Gas in Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Another fatal boiler explosion occurred this morning in the old Wisconsin Central depot freight house, at Polk street and Fifth avenue. About 3 o'clock this morning Geo. W. Wiley, the night watchman, entered the engine room and started a fire under the boiler. For some reason the boiler exploded. Pieces of steel and copper were hurled in every direction and some of them struck Wiley, cutting off, almost cleanly, the top of his head and crushing his legs and arms. Death must have been instantaneous.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Christopher Hall, of Parson, and her four children were yesterday morning found in their room unconscious, having been overcome by the gas from a stove. Two of the children will die.

BLAINE'S SON.

The Funeral of Walker Blaine Occurred at the City of Washington This Morning.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The funeral of Walker Blaine took place this morning. The day was bright and the air cool. A large number of the friends of the Blaine family, members of the diplomatic corps, and people in official life attended the funeral.

A private ceremony was held at the home of Secretary Blaine on Lafayette Square at 10:30. The President and Mrs. Harrison, the members of the cabinet, E. W. Halford, and several members of the diplomatic corps and some intimate friends of the family attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. At the conclusion of the private services the remains were taken to the Church of the Covenant, followed by the family and friends, in carriages.

The funeral cortege arrived at the Church of the Covenant at 11:15, and, preceded by Rev. Dr. Hamlin, at once passed into the church. The remains, which were encased in a handsome black coffin, were borne by the pall-bearers, Wm. F. Wharton, John Davis, S. A. Brown, Marcellus Bailey, M. L. Ruth, A. F. Jenks, F. B. Loring, and Wm. Haywood. After the pall-bearers came Mr. and Mrs. Blaine, James G. Blaine, jr., and the Misses Blaine, Mr. Emmons Blaine and wife, and Miss Dodge, relatives of the family; the President and Mrs. Harrison, Vice-President and Mrs. Morton, Secretary and Mrs. Windom, Secretary and Mrs. Proctor, Secretary and Mrs. Noble, Secretary and Mrs. Tracy, Attorney General and Mrs. Miller, and Secretary and Mrs. Rusk.

Dr. Hamlin then ascended the pulpit and read the funeral service, concluding with a prayer, in which he referred to the loss the family had sustained and prayed God to comfort them in their sorrow. They had, he said, lost the "light of their eyes." A life so beautiful, so pure, so exalted had gone out. At the conclusion of the prayer, the Lord's prayer was recited, the congregation joining with the minister. Benediction was then pronounced and the remains were placed in the hearse and the funeral procession proceeded to Oak Hill cemetery, where the interment took place.

The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Around the altar were flowers, potted plants and evergreens in great profusion. Many prominent people in social and diplomatic and political life, were present.

The state department was closed during the time of the funeral, and the officials and clerks attended in a body. The department of justice, adjoining the Blaine residence, was closed from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

FIVE KILLED.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 18.—The vestibule train from Chicago on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, ran into the Glendale accommodation at College Hill junction, at 10 o'clock, last night, and a terrible wreck followed.

There were three passenger cars of the Glendale train containing about seventy-five people. The locomotive of the Chicago vestibuled train ran half way through the rear car of the accommodation, piling the cars in a heap and setting them on fire. The locomotive of the accommodation was not derailed. The fire department and patrol wagons were called from Cincinnati and the fire was extinguished.

Three bodies were taken from the wreck last night and others this morning, and afterward taken to the hospital. The following is a list of the killed: John Wilson, insurance agent 227 Main street, this city, lived at Winton Place; Charles Keller, hardware merchant, Winton Place; F. W. Witherbee, conductor, of Toledo, Ohio; William Planitz, a plumber, of Carthage; and Baggagemaster James Staley, of Toledo, died after being taken to the hospital.

Purchases Six of the Leading Breweries of Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Ohio., Jan. 18.—It was ascertained yesterday that six of the leading breweries of this city had been purchased by an English syndicate, the price paid being $975,000. They are the Stoppel, Muth, Schneider, the Cleveland Brewing company, Oppman and Baehr. The remaining four breweries want $4,200,000, and it is probable that all will be sold during the coming week except Leisses and Schlatters.

CONGRESS.

A Bill Introduced to Locate the World's Fair at St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the house to-day Mr. Frank, of Missouri, introduced a bill locating the world's fair at St. Louis and creating a corporation to carry on the same. Referred to special committee. On motion of Mr. Mason, of Illinois, the committee investigating the ballot-box forgery was permitted to sit during the sessions of the house.

After routine business, the house went into a committee of the whole on the Oklahoma town site bill.

DR. JAMES S. GREGG.

This afternoon a telegram was received from C. E. Wright, superintendent of the insane asylum, stating that Dr. James S. Gregg had just died at that institution, at Indianapolis..

Dr. Gregg was taken to the institution about six months ago, suffering from insanity, brought on by his disease paralysis.

His family reside in this city and he will be brought here for burial.

Dr. Gregg was born at Delaware, Ohio, and was educated in the leading colleges of the country.

He came to Fort Wayne soon after the close of the war, having served as surgeon in the army.

He was ex-president of the state medical society. A wife, and young son and daughter survive him. He was fifty-eight years old.

The funeral will be under the auspices of the Masons of the city.

A ROADMASTER RETIRES.

John Wagoner, Who Laid the First Rails of the Muncie.

Mr. John C. Wagoner will shortly retire from the position of roadmaster of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad. Mr. Wagoner has been connected with this road twenty-four years.

Having been engaged in the construction of the old Muncie road, he laid the first rails put down on the line. His record is that of long years' faithful faithful service and he has the name of being one of the best trackmen in the country.

Mr. Wagoner has not decided upon his future course. He lives with his family on North Calhoun street in Bloomingdale.

LOCAL LINES.

There was no court in the circuit court to-day.

I. M. Jones and J. L. Patty, Lima, Ohio, are at the Wayne.

Charles Bergh and Augusta Oertel were licensed to wed to-day.

Mr. Lipes Thieme will go to Chicago next week to attend a meeting of cutters.

Mrs. Lambert, of West Main street, is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

Anna E. Cardrey enters suit in the circuit court against Leo and Felian Slataper, petition for partition of real estate. A. H. Bittinger is attorney for the plaintiff.

Messrs. P. A. Randall and Harry Hanna are home from Chicago, where they completed arrangements to buy the Loree tract for the Land and Improvement company for $75,000.

Mr. Frederick Weatherby, formerly of this city but of late years a conductor on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road in Ohio, had a wreck last night in which he was burned to death.

Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted in the circuit court to-day by Celia Voirel against Frank Voirel, sr., and Cara Voirel, who it is alleged are illegally restraining John and Eddie Voirel, the plaintiff's children.

The representatives of the Land and Improvement company to day agreed to withdraw their petition for right of way across the Columbia street bridge, providing the Fort Wayne Street railway construct a line over there, the work to commence in ninety days. The street car company were considering the matter at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Last Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Mr. Frank Stier gathered at his residence, on Madison street, and tendered him a little surprise, it being his birthday. He was presented with a beautiful chair. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mettler, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Halstein, Mr. and Mrs. App, Miss C. Stier, Mr. C. Zimmerman, Mr. Krull, Mr. Heit, Mr. Joe Wike, Mr. Geo. Miller and others.

"THE LITTLE GERMAN."

Kunze, the Cronin Suspect, Released and Will Be on Exhibition in a Dime Museum.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—John W. Kunze, the lucky one of the Cronin suspects, whom the jury awarded three years in the penitentiary, was released from the the county jail this morning. His release was due to the efforts of a dime museum manager, who signed Kunze's bonds, and the little German, in return for the favor, will appear on exhibition at the museum of his benefactor.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Jan. 18.—John Webb, who made the murderous assault on Thomas G. McCaust on the night of October 28, was yesterday sentenced to thirty-five years in the penitentiary. He was at once taken out of town to escape the fury of a mob.

THE EVANSVILLE FLOOD.

The River Still Rising and Much Suffering Caused.

EVANSVILLE, Jan. 18.—The river is still rising at the rate of over one half an inch per hour, and at 9 o'clock last night registered 37 2-10 feet on the guage. The mail packets are experiencing a great deal of trouble in delivering the mail. At some points the water has reached a height which will not permit them to land, and there are now but few landings where they can transact business.

Information from Green river last night was that the stream and its tributaries are still rising and causing great damage to property. Reports from Wabash and White rivers are that they are slowly receding on the upper portions, but are still rising slowly below Grayville. A great number of people, who have been forced to leave their homes, are suffering for the want of food and from the cold weather.

A NEW STREET RAILWAY.

W. T. Abbott and Others File a Petition for Right of Way.

W. T. Abbott, August Schele, A. H. Carrier, C. L. Centlivre, and Winch & Sons filed a petition with the county commissioners for the right of way of a new street railway to be owned and operated by a stock company of which the petitioners are principals.

The projected line is intended to commence at the intersection of Raymond and Gertrude streets in Abbott's addition, and follow a course west on Raymond to Home; south on Home to Pontiac; west on Pontiac to Wayne Trace; thence to Walton avenue, near the east yards, and the New Haven gravel road.

The line lays in Adams township and is out of the city. It is asserted that the scheme will be accomplished. Should the line be built a sanitarium will be built at the Abbott mineral well. It will boom that portion of the city.

URGING A SELECTION.

The committees to encourage the selection of this city as a suitable and desirable place to hold the next G. A. R. encampment is meeting with encouragement. The committees consist of four comrades from each of the posts in this city, of which there are three, Sion S. Bass, Anthony Wayne, and George Humphrey.

George D. Adams, chief money order clerk at the postoffice, is chairman of the joint committee. He is now addressing the five hundred posts of the state with an object of getting an opinion from each one. He sets forth in his appeal that Indianapolis has for a long term of years succeeded in securing the encampment; that there is a demand a different meeting place be selected every year for the convenience of the posts of the state instead of having a permanent point. The committee shows that other cities are equally entitled and fully as capable of taking care of the encampment as Indianapolis.

One thing is certain. Northern Indiana is heart and soul with the action. Another is also positive that inasmuch as Fort Wayne posts inaugurated the movement she is entitled to it. This city asks nothing of the encampment of 1891 and after that she is ready to assist in securing it for any other city which is entitled to it.

There is no precedent established in any G. A. R. encampment in the United States where one city is the selection year after year and it seems a sad commentary on other enterprising cities of the state that they should be forgotten in the excitement. But enterprising efforts will bring it here.

The Business Men's exchange are heart and hand with these committees who are striving so earnestly to accomplish something that will be for public good. The common council will extend all that can possibly lend to the entertainment and comfort of the "boys who wear the badge."

Give Fort Wayne the next G. A. R. encampment.

Mr. J. V. Hiler will go down to Van Buren, Grant county, next Monday to organize an assembly of the Knights of Labor.

BRAIN AND BRAWN.

The Enjoyments and Benefits of a Gymnasium Witnessed by a Reporter.

In anticipation of the coming gymnastic exhibition on the evening of the 23d of this month by the members of the City Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, it may not be untimely to set forth a few facts pertinent to this work. The time when the only gymnasts or athletes were those of the circus or prize ring has passed.

The fact that properly directed exercises will accomplish results when the medical profession is powerless to accomplish is no longer doubted. The object sought in true physical education is not first the possession of Herculean muscle, but the attainment of perfect physical health and with this foremost the other advantages will follow in their order.

Somewhere between the limp body of the helpless invalid and the brawny gladiator of the arena lies the strength which men, and women, too, want. They want enough to give each a well developed body.

Right here in this city there have been under instruction of Prof. Gage several classes in physical culture. In the roomy and well appointed gymnasium room a SENTINEL reporter has been treated to some splendid exhibitions of skill in agility and strength by persons who a few months ago were too weak to "skin the cat."

The gymnasium is a boon to the clergyman, the business man, the clerk and many others whose constitution lacks healthful vigor.

But, aside from the physical benefit derived, the mental impetus is astonishing. No man knows what he has missed until he begins a gymnasium course.

IN SOUTH WAYNE.

A Sentinel Reporter Saunters Through That Thriving Burg.

The little town of South Wayne, thanks to the pride of its inhabitants, is becoming more attractive every day. The improvements are going on with remarkable rapidity.

The timber is being cut and thinned out on the Reid property around the high banks and the property will be laid out into acre lots for residence building. Professor Dryer will be the first to build on this property in the spring.

The surveyor has been ordered to survey for sidewalks on all principal streets and for the grading of streets, the work to be prosecuted in the spring.

The tax levy is ten cents on each $100 valuation.

The present trustees draw no salary. They insist that they will not run the town in debt.

Lumber has been purchased to build fifty new street crossings.

STARTLED THE GAMS.

Chief Wilkinson and a Posse Visit Two Gambling Houses.

Last night Chief Wilkinson and a posse visited two gambling houses, the fruits of which was the arrest of eight gamblers all of whom were professionals.

In a room over 88 Calhoun street they found Frank Batt, Thomas Coughlin, Charles Johnson, William Johnson, George Swift and George W. Cassell.

At 27 Calhoun street were Lewis Oliver and Frank Bare.

POLICE COURT.

William Jones, arrested by Officer Kramer for vagrancy.

John Clifford arrested by Officer Patton for drunkenness.

James Maguire arrested by Chief Wilkinson for drunkenness.

George Murray arrested by Lieutenant Fuchshober.

Death of Mrs. Fry.

Yesterday afternoon, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Sine, 77 Dawson street, occurred the death of Mrs. Mary Fry, aged eighty years. The deceased was a pioneer citizen, and was greatly esteemed and loved by a large circle of friends.

Her husband has been dead for some years, but several children survive her; among whom are: Mrs. Sine, of this city; Mrs. Mauk, of Plymouth; Henry Fry, of St. Louis; Merritt Fry, of Moberly, Mo., and two daughters living in the west.

Jacob Hartman, the retiring president of St. Julian Council, No. 89, yesterday received a deputy state chancellor's commission authorizing and empowering him to institute subordinate councils of the Catholic Benevolent Legion. His first installation of new officers will be at Decatur, Ind., January 29. Mr. Hartman is receiving congratulations on the strength of his appointment.

and thirst for pleasure. The ruling passion of the human family. In grasping after riches the brain is taxed, the nervous system strained. In the pursuit of pleasure the body is tortured by fashion's despotic sway; the hours designed for repose are devoted to exhausting revelry; the stomach is ruthlessly imposed upon; pure water, the natural drink for all created beings, is ignored, and liquid fire is substituted until, ere we are aware of it, disease has fixed its iron grasp upon us. NOT STARTLING.

The News of the Day as It Is Found Around the Busy Centers of the City.

The electric light works pay their employes Monday.

Nat Miller, fireman at the Electric light works, is on the sick list.

J. Polly, the elevator boy at the electric light works, is on the sick list.

The open winter has been favorable to the workingmen in very many respects.

Peter Harper, of the Pittsburg machines shops, is off duty on account of illness.

The machinists in the Pittsburg shops work four nights a week until 9:30 o'clock.

H. H. Doebler, of the Pennsylvania company, has returned from a visit at Chicago.

Henry Miller, one of the oldest machinists in the Pittsburg shops, is on the sick list.

Brainard Rorrison, of the electric works, is out of the city on business for the firm.

E. B. Lepper, of the electric light works, has returned to work after an illness.

The Pittsburg pay-car did not come in until late yesterday afternoon. It goes west this afternoon.

The sick list in the manufacturing establishments of the city during the last few weeks has been very large.

Henry Grush, of the East Pittsburg car shops, who was injured some time ago, returned to work yesterday.

Traveling Auditor Heckman, of the electric light works, has returned from a six weeks trip, during which he visiting many large plants in the east.

Henry Wimmer, of the Bass works, had his watch stolen the other day from his vest which was hung up on a hook while he was at work. There is no clue to the thief.

R. V. Dutcher, who for a number of years was employed as train dispatcher on the Wabash road at Peru, Ind., committed suicide at Herman, Dak., last week by shooting himself.

Since January 1 the Pennsylvania company has closed contracts for 30,000 tons of new steel rails, and the Union Pacific for 40,000 tons. The price ranged from $28 to $39 a ton.

La grippe is making bad work among railway telegraph operators, and superintendents of telegraph are experiencing considerable trouble in keeping the offices along the roads properly manned.

The railroad commissioners of New York recommend that railings be placed along the top of freight cars as a safeguard for employes in case of accident. They also advocate continuous train brakers.

The railroad commissioners of New York, in their annual report, say that heating trains by steam taken from the locomotive is an accomplished fact, but the present system works only fairly well. It seems, at times, quite difficult to control the temperature of coaches.

John J. Heaton took passage upon a Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville train some months ago, and claims that he lost a trunkful of goods valued at $200. He says that the railroad company will not make the loss good, and he has brought suit in the superior court at Indianapolis to enforce payment.

February 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad company will introduce a new feature on its limited trains. On each train between New York and Philadelphia an expert stenographer and type-writer will be carried for the service of passengers. A compartment is fitted up and arrangements made for mailing letters on the train.

John E. Ross, the passenger agent of the Pennsylvania road, entertained the following traveling passenger agents during his leisure hours yesterday: O. E. Jenkins, of the New York Central, J. A. Sheppard, of the Rock Island; O. Warner, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; H. A. Bonn, of the Topeka and Santa Fee; C. C. Mordaugh, of the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul.

H. A. Philley, chief clerk in Road Foreman of Engineers Polhamus' office, is interrupted in his work fifty times a day by men applying for situations as firemen on the Pennsylvania. He is a very busy man and to save time and the necessity of answering questions has posted up in conspicuous letters over his desk, this notice: "The road foreman is not it. Do not know when he will be in. He has all the firemen he wants at present."

Trainmen on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, between Findlay and Fostoria, are greatly disturbed over what they claim is the ghost of a dead freight conductor. The conductor was killed one night last November, about eight miles east of Findlay, by this train breaking into two sections in such manner that he was thrown to the track from the car on which he was standing and beheaded by the wheels before the train could be controlled.

Dr. J. M. Kells, the examining physician of the Pensylvania mutual relief association, reports fifty-eight employes of the Pennsylvania company in this city off duty on account of illness. There are others, but all of these fifty-eight employes are members of the relief association and draw a certain allowance each day during their illness.

WORKMAN'S LIEN.

In the supreme court of the state, in the case of Wilcox vs. the Midland railroad company, the following decision of interest has been rendered:

The legislature intended, by the act of 1883, giving persons doing work upon a railroad or furnishing materials, a valid and effective lien, and the act of 1885 simply carries this intention into effect. The act of 1883 gave a lien upon a railroad and not upon mere parcels of it, as an isolated bridge or culvert or a single embankment or excavation.

2. Mechanics' liens are assignable.

3. A lien fastens upon an entire and continuous line of unfinished road and may be enforced in any one of the counties through which the road runs.

4. When a corporation having a line of railroad in operation to a town or city within a county contracts for a construction of a part of the road leading from such town or city to a point beyond the county limits, the contractors may acquire a lien upon the part which they construct or aid in constructing, although a portion of it lies within the county in which a part of the road is completed and in operation.

5. One notice filed in each of the proper counties will cover the entire line when it is included in one contract, and when the work has been done upon it and the materials furnished for it as a continuous line.

James Milburn, a lad attending school southeast of Delphi, created no little sensation a few days ago. While sitting in the school room he amused himself by picking at a dynamite cartridge with a pin. The cartridge exploded, terribly mangling his hands and creating consternation in the school room. One scholar was so badly frightened that he had to be carried to his home.

Thursday evening, just before No. 8, the eastbound fast line on the Pennsylvania road, due here at 7:40 reached Richey station, a few miles east of this city, the watchman at that place discovered that the bolts which held the frog at the west end of the switch had been broken off, thereby making it dangerous for a train to pass over in safety. It is supposed that the bolts had been broken with an ax or some heavy instrument as they were badly bent near the broken places.

What is a cold in the head? Medical authorities say it is due to uneven clothing of the body, rapid cooling when in a perspiration, &c. The important point is, that a cold in the head is an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nose, which, when unchecked, is certain to produce a catarrhal condition—for catarrh is essentially a "cold," which nature is no longer able to "resolve" or throw off. Ely's Cream Balm has proved its superiority, and sufferers should resort to it before that common ailment becomes seated and ends in obstinate catarrh.

EATON RAPIDS, Mich.

J. M. LOOSE RED CLOVER CO., Detroit:—Two years I was afflicted with a very severe attack of Erysipelas. After two physicians had used their treatment for several weeks and I continued growing blind, and in their diagnosis concluded that there was no earthly help or hope for me, I gave up, having tried all the remedies I knew or heard of. My neighbor, Mr. Miller, came in to see me one day, and said try Loose's Extract of Red Clover, as he had known of its working remarkable cures. I told him I had lost hope, that nothing would do me any good in the world. He insisted, and taking his hat went to the drug store and bought me one bottle and urged me to try it, which I did. Ten days afterward I sent for two more bottles, and it is wonderful how I improved. I continued using it and to-day I am better than I have been in years. No sign of erysipelas has shown itself and I heartily recommend it to suffering humanity as the greatest and best blood purifier in existence. Yours truly,

Bright eyes and dull; near sighted; far sighted; anybody (except those who won't, and they are worse than blind) can see at a glance the advantages gained by using PEARLINE. We do not expect everyone will see it, but millions do, and the number increases every day.

Delicate women and strong wonder at the amount of work they can do with the aid of PEARLINE—the time saved; the satisfactory results, and when they have used it for years they realize that everything that is washed or cleaned with PEARLINE lasts longer. This is very simple—PEARLINE does away with most of the rubbing—the greatest wear and tear that clothes are subjected to is the repeated rubbings necessary to keep them clean with ordinary soap. Your own interests should lead you to use it, if you do your own work and value your fine linens and flannels; the latter reason should surely convince any bright woman that it is to her interest to see that her servants use it. PEARLINE makes a saving all around.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not. 162 JAMES PYLE, New York.

It has been determined by the Northern Indiana and Southern Michigan Livestock and Savings association to hold a summer meeting. The track at Spring Fountain Park will be in splendid condition by that time. Races will take place on the 4th of July, and continue probably several days.

Another smashup occurred on the C. & A. road, freight train No. 81 in charge of Conductor Thomas having been overtaken at the Leiters curve by a Wabash train, which plunged into the caboose of 81 and caused quite a smash. The caboose was torn to pieces and the Wabash engine was somewhat damaged. One of the saddest features of the accident was an injury to C. W. Gillispie, brakeman, whose leg was caught and crushed so as to necessitate amputation above the knee.

At Plymouth, Ind., last Tuesday, occurred the marriage of George W. Houch, o Oregon, and Miss Mary Sweeney, of Plymouth. The bride is well-known in this city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Menich, at 8:30. A sumptuous dinner was served at Mr. James E. Hanes', uncle of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in a very stylish traveling costume and the groom in conventional black. The attendants were Miss Kate Sweeney, sister of the bride, and Mr. Ferd Iche, of Plymouth. The bridal party left on the 12:58 train for Terre Haute, from which place they will go through the south and then settle in their western home in Oregon. They received a number of costly presents. Those who attended the wedding from abroad were Rev. J. F. Lang, of Fort Wayne; Miss Mamie Lang, of Delphos, cousins of the groom; Miss Kate Leighton, of Warsaw; Rev. Hartmann, of Monroeville; Miss Kate Sweeney and Miss Anna Farnan, of this city.

THAT TERRIBLE "GRIPPE"

"LaGrippe," the Russian influenza, that has caused so much talk, is a more severe affliction than people usually think. It arises mysteriously and appears to have its origin in the atmosphere. The last time it visited America was in 1803, and it came then, as now from Asia. The name 'influenza,' comes from the suggestion that the malady was due to the 'influences' of the heavenly bodies, but more modern science has discovered that it is due to the changes in the electrical conditions. Whatever may be the cause, it is a strong congestion of the blood vessels and mucous membrane, principally in the head and throat, and nothing but strong stimulants will check this congestion and keep the blood actively circulating. For this purpose I know of nothing better than pure whisky, and I believe Duffy's Pure Malt to be the best and purest whiskey known to the world.

Formerly this influenza was said to precede an epidemic of the plague, and the person who was about to be taken with the latter, had as a preliminary, a fit of sneezing. Now it precedes a worse epidemic than the plague, namely, the terrible pneumonia. Its beginning is light but its ending is often terrible. Pains in the limbs, back, chest and head, a sore throat and lack of appetite, copious discharge at the nose: these are some of the symptoms of this dread disease. Upon the slightest approach of any of these symptoms a nervous feeling, or lassitude, resort should be had to a pure whiskey, which is the only certain means of breaking up this epidemic before it secures hold upon the system to check it when it has become started. Care should be taken however to secure only that which is pure, as the article above named certainly is."

FOREPAUGH HAS IT!

The Well-Known Showman Very Ill With La Grippe—The Malady's Deadly Work.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—Mr. Adam Forepaugh, the well known circus man, is lying at his residence here, suffering from a very sudden and severe attack of influenza.

Mr. Forepaugh has been apparently enjoying usually good health for some time and has been engaged negotiating, through one of his agents in England, for the sale of his mammoth circus to an English syndicate. It is reported that the English syndicate has agreed upon Mr. Forepaugh's figures for the sale of his circus.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 18.—The following deaths from la grippe yesterday are reported: At Dover, N. H., Thomas Bunker, who served in the navy before and during the rebellion, aged sixty. At Fall River, Mass., the fifth and last of the children of William and Mary Boyle of pneumonia, resulting from grip, four of the Boyle children, who also died of the grippe, were buried, Thursday. At Laconia, N. H., and at Lake Village, N. H., one death each.

From Norwalk, Conn., it is reported that la grippe, after having been epidemic there for over a month, is rapidly disappearing, and the same state of affairs in neighboring towns.

ROME, Jan. 18.—M. Mariania, the French ambassador to Rome is dead. He had been suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—The death rate showed a gratifying falling off yesterday from the previous day. The total number of deaths reported at the health department was 80 as against 128 on Thursday, and 86 on Wednesday. The total for the week thus far is 559, and Health Commissioner Wickersham calculates by noon to-day it will have reached 600, or an annual rate per thousand of twenty-eight and a fraction.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—Judge Nicholas Longworth, a prominent citizen, died this morning of pneumonia. He left property worth several millions of dollars.

VERSAILLES, Jan. 18.—United States Minister Lincoln has started for London with his son, who is convalescent.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Jay Westinghouse, president of the Westinghouse company of this city, large manufacturers of agricultural implements, and oldest brother of George Westinghouse, of air-brake fame, died at his home on Washington avenue yesterday morning, aged fifty-three years.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Henry Cohen, proprietor of the Central Park riding academy, dropped dead at the academy, on Fifty-ninth street, shortly after 10 a. m. to-day.

A LOVE ROMANCE.

Miss Mayes Deserts the Choice of Her Parents at the Altar and Flees With Her Lover.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 18.—Flora Mayes was to have been married at her father's residence near Randolph, Thursday noon, to Wm. Merriweither, a rich farmer. Mr. Merriweither is fifty-two years of age and a widower. Miss Mayes is nineteen.

The match was arranged by the girl's parents, much against her will. She was in love with a young man named Geo. Church. Merriwether had arrived at the Mayes residence and the guests were assembled in the parlor awaiting the appearance of the bride.

When Church arrived Miss Mayes saw him coming and in her bridal dress ran to the gate to meet him.

The young lovers leaped into Merriwether's carriage, which was standing at the gate, drove to Centerville and were married. They were hotly pursued, but Merriwether's horses were the fastest in that section, and the young lovers were man and wife half an hour before the pursuing party arrived at Centerville.

WILL STRIKE AGAIN.

All the Freight Conductors on the Mackey Road May Go Out.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Jan. 18.—When W. H. Dean, a freight conductor, was given a train on Mackey's Evansville and Terre Haute road yesterday, the brakemen refused to go out with him. In the recent settlement of the strike on this road the strikers asked for the discharge of Dean. It has been claimed this was granted, as Dean has not been at work since. A committee went to Evansville yesterday to ask an explanation of Mr. Mackey. It is not unlikely that the freight conductors will all strike again. Dean's offense was in offering to take out a train during the strike.

POISON IN THE SOUP.

This is What a Girl Did Because Her Mistress Reproved Her.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the police court yesterday a young colored girl named Laura Rollins was charged with assault, with intent to kill Mrs. George Froiderick, who lives at 321 East Capital street. The girl was employed as a domestic in the family.

Wednesday Mrs. Froiderick had occasion to reprove her. A little later she saw the girl put something in the soup, and when it was served there were lumps of grayish matter floating on the surface. The soup was not eaten, and a druggist who made a rough analysis of it said that it contained "Rough on Rats." The girl was arrested.

GAMBLING DID IT.

A Young Lawyer Proves an Embezzler and Skips.

CHEVENAND, O., Jan. 18.—A sensational case came to light yesterday, Homer DeWolf, a brilliant local lawyer, was charged with appropriating $3,000, from a widow as well as defrauding several prominent citizens. His case is before the grand jury. Gambling and high living are the cause of his ruin. DeWolf is missing and is supposed to be in the east, although efforts to locate him have proved futile.

FATAL ACCIDENTS.

An Explosion at Chicago—Death by Gas in Pennsylvania.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Another fatal boiler explosion occurred this morning in the old Wisconsin Central depot freight house, at Polk street and Fifth avenue. About 3 o'clock this morning Geo. W. Wiley, the night watchman, entered the engine room and started a fire under the boiler. For some reason the boiler exploded. Pieces of steel and copper were hurled in every direction and some of them struck Wiley, cutting off, almost cleanly, the top of his head and crushing his legs and arms. Death must have been instantaneous.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 18.—Mrs. Christopher Hall, of Parson, and her four children were yesterday morning found in their room unconscious, having been overcome by the gas from a stove. Two of the children will die.

St. Paul M. E. church—The revival meeting now being held is growing in interest with each passing evening. Last evening the attendance was large and a meeting of wonderful spiritual power was held. The pastor is ably supported in the work by the entire membership of the church. Some excellent workers from abroad are expected in a few days. An all-day's meeting will be held to-morrow, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning and close with the revival service at night. The people can come at any hour of the day and enjoy a service. The services to-morrow will be held for the salvation of souls. The pastor, Rev. M. C. Cooper, will be assisted by several of the earnest Christian workers in the city.

The first service in the new audience room of the Baptist church will be held the first Sunday in Febr

BLAINE'S SON.

The Funeral of Walker Blaine Occurred at the City of Washington This Morning.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The funeral of Walker Blaine took place this morning. The day was bright and the air cool. A large number of the friends of the Blaine family, members of the diplomatic corps, and people in official life attended the funeral.

A private ceremony was held at the home of Secretary Blaine on Lafayette Square at 10:30. The President and Mrs. Harrison, the members of the cabinet, E. W. Halford, and several members of the diplomatic corps and some intimate friends of the family attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Hamlin, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. At the conclusion of the private services the remains were taken to the Church of the Covenant, followed by the family and friends, in carriages.

The funeral cortege arrived at the Church of the Covenant at 11:15, and, preceded by Rev. Dr. Hamlin, at once passed into the church. The remains, which were encased in a handsome black coffin, were borne by the pall-bearers, Wm. F. Wharton, John Davis, S. A. Brown, Marcellus Bailey, M. L. Ruth, A. F. Jenks, F. B. Loring, and Wm. Haywood. After the pall-bearers came Mr. and Mrs. Blaine, James G. Blaine, jr., and the Misses Blaine, Mr. Emmons Blaine and wife, and Miss Dodge, relatives of the family; the President and Mrs. Harrison, Vice-President and Mrs. Morton, Secretary and Mrs. Windom, Secretary and Mrs. Proctor, Secretary and Mrs. Noble, Secretary and Mrs. Tracy, Attorney General and Mrs. Miller, and Secretary and Mrs. Rusk.

Dr. Hamlin then ascended the pulpit and read the funeral service, concluding with a prayer, in which he referred to the loss the family had sustained and prayed God to comfort them in their sorrow. They had, he said, lost the "light of their eyes." A life so beautiful, so pure, so exalted had gone out. At the conclusion of the prayer, the Lord's prayer was recited, the congregation joining with the minister. Benediction was then pronounced and the remains were placed in the hearse and the funeral procession proceeded to Oak Hill cemetery, where the interment took place.

The church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Around the altar were flowers, potted plants and evergreens in great profusion. Many prominent people in social and diplomatic and political life, were present.

The state department was closed during the time of the funeral, and the officials and clerks attended in a body. The department of justice, adjoining the Blaine residence, was closed from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

FIVE KILLED.

A Bad Wreck on the C., H. & D. Road Near Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 18.—The vestibule train from Chicago on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, ran into the Glendale accommodation at College Hill junction, at 10 o'clock, last night, and a terrible wreck followed.

There were three passenger cars of the Glendale train containing about seventy-five people. The locomotive of the Chicago vestibuled train ran half way through the rear car of the accommodation, piling the cars in a heap and setting them on fire. The locomotive of the accommodation was not derailed. The fire department and patrol wagons were called from Cincinnati and the fire was extinguished.

Three bodies were taken from the wreck last night and others this morning, and afterward taken to the hospital. The following is a list of the killed: John Wilson, insurance agent 227 Main street, this city, lived at Winton Place; Charles Keller, hardware merchant, Winton Place; F. W. Witherbee, conductor, of Toledo, Ohio; William Plubitz, a plumber, of Carthage; and Baggagemaster James Staley, of Toledo, died after being taken to the hospital.

ENGLISH MONEY

Purchases Six of the Leading Breweries of Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 18.—It was ascertained yesterday that six of the leading breweries of this city had been purchased by an English syndicate, the price paid being $975,000. They are the Stoppel, Muth, Schneider, the Cleveland Brewing company, Oppman and Bachr. The remaining four breweries want $4,200,000, and it is probable that all will be sold during the coming week except Leisses and Schlatters.

CONGRESS.

A Bill Introduced to Locate the World's Fair at St. Louis.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—In the house to-day Mr. Frank, of Missouri, introduced a bill locating the world's fair at St. Louis and creating a corporation to carry on the same. Referred to special committee. On motion of Mr. Mason, of Illinois, the committee investigating the ballot-box forgery was permitted to sit during the sessions of the house.

After routine business, the house went into a committee of the whole on the Oklahoma town site bill.

DR. JAMES S. GREGG.

This afternoon a telegram was received from C. E. Wright, superintendent of the insane asylum, stating that Dr. James S. Gregg had just died at that institution, at Indianapolis.

Dr. Gregg was taken to the institution about six months ago, suffering from insanity, brought on by his disease paralysis.

His family reside in this city and he will be brought here for burial.

Dr. Gregg was born at Delaware, Ohio, and was educated in the leading colleges of the country.

He came to Fort Wayne soon after the close of the war, having served as surgeon in the army.

He was ex-president of the state medical society. A wife, and young son and daughter survive him. He was fifty eight years old.

The funeral will be under the auspices of the Masons of the city.

A ROADMASTER RETIRES.

John Wagoner, Who Laid the First Rails of the Muncie.

Mr. John C. Wagoner will shortly retire from the position of roadmaster of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville railroad. Mr. Wagoner has been connected with this road twenty-four years.

Having been engaged in the construction of the old Muncie road, he laid the first rails put down on the line. His record is that of long years' faithful faithful service and he has the name of being one of the best trackmen in the country.

Mr. Wagoner has not decided upon his future course. He lives with his family on North Calhoun street in Bloomingdale.

LOCAL LINES.

There was no court in the circuit court to-day.

I. M. Jones and J. L. Patty, Lima, Ohio, are at the Wayne.

Mr. Charles DeBolne is recovering from an attack la grippe.

Charles Bergh and Augusta Oertel were licensed to wed to-day.

Mr. Lipes Thieme will go to Chicago next week to attend a meeting of cutters.

Mrs. Lambert, of West Main street, is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

The first annual reception and ball of the Excelsior club will be held at Standard hall, January 22.

Anna E. Cardrey enters suit to the circuit court against Lee and Felian Slataper, petition for partition of real estate. A. H. Bittinger is attorney for the plaintiff.

Messrs. P. A. Randall and Harry Hamm are home from Chicago, where they completed arrangements to buy the Lorco tract for the Land and Improvement company for $75,000.

Mr. Frederick Weatherby, formerly of this city but of late years a conductor on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton road in Ohio, had a wreck last night in which he was burned to death.

Habeas corpus proceedings were instituted in the circuit court to-day by Celia Voirel against Frank Voirel, sr., and Cara Voirel, who it is alleged are illegally restraining John and Eddie Voirel, the plaintiff's children.

The representatives of the Land and Improvement company to-day agreed to withdraw their petition for right of way across the Columbia street bridge, providing the Fort Wayne Street railway construct a line over there, the work to commence in ninety days. The street car company were considering the matter at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Last Tuesday evening a number of the friends of Mr. Frank Stier gathered at his residence, on Madison street, and tendered him a little surprise, it being his birthday. He was presented with a beautiful chair. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Mettler, Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Halstein, Mr. and Mrs. App, Miss C. Stier, Mr. C. Zimmerman, Mr. Krull, Mr. Heit, Mr. Joe Wike, Mr. Geo. Miller and others.

"THE LITTLE GERMAN."

Kunze, the Cronin Suspect, Released and Will Be on Exhibition in a Dime Museum.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—John W. Kunze, the lucky one of the Cronin suspects, whom the jury awarded three years in the penitentiary, was released from the the county jail this morning. His release was due to the efforts of a dime museum manager, who signed Kunze's bonds, and the little German, in return for the favor, will appear on exhibition at the museum of his benefactor.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, Jan. 18.—John Webb, who made the murderous assault on Thomas G. McCaust on the night of October 28, was yesterday sentenced to thirty-five years in the penitentiary. He was at once taken out of town to escape the fury of a mob.

THE EVANSVILLE FLOOD.

The River Still Rising and Much Suffering Caused.

EVANSVILLE, Jan. 18.—The river is still rising at the rate of over one half an inch per hour, and at 9 o'clock last night registered 37 2-10 feet on the gauge. The mail packets are experiencing a great deal of trouble in delivering the mail. At some points the water has reached a height which will not permit them to land, and there are now but few landings where they can transact business.

Information from Green river last night was that the stream and its tributaries are still rising and causing great damage to property. Reports from Wabash and White rivers are that they are slowly receding on the upper portions, but are still rising slowly below Grayville. A great number of people, who have been forced to leave their homes, are suffering for the want of food and from the cold weather.

A NEW STREET RAILWAY.

W. T. Abbott and Others File a Petition for Right of Way.

W. T. Abbott, August Schele, A. H. Carrier, C. L. Centilivre, and Winch & Sons filed a petition with the county commissioners for the right of way of a new street railway to be owned and operated by a stock company of which the petitioners are principals.

The projected line is intended to commence at the intersection of Raymond and Gertrude streets in Abbott's addition, and follow a course west on Raymond to Home; south on Home to Pontiac; west on Pontiac to Wayne Trace; thence to Walton avenue, near the east yards, and the New Haven gravel road.

The line lays in Adams township and is out of the city. It is asserted that the scheme will be accomplished. Should the line be built a sanitarium will be built at the Abbott mineral well. It will boom that portion of the city.

URGING A SELECTION.

The committees to encourage the selection of this city as a suitable and desirable place to hold the next G. A. R. encampment is meeting with encouragement. The committees consist of four comrades from each of the posts in this city, of which there are three, Sion S. Bass, Anthony Wayne, and George Humphrey.

George D. Adams, chief money order clerk at the postoffice, is chairman of the joint committee. He is now addressing the five hundred posts of the state with an object of getting an opinion from each one. He sets forth in his appeal that Indianapolis has for a long term of years succeeded in securing the encampment; that there is a demand a different meeting place be selected every year for the convenience of the posts of the state instead of having a permanent point. The committee shows that other cities are equally entitled and fully as capable of taking care of the encampment as Indianapolis.

One thing is certain. Northern Indiana is heart and soul with the action. Another is also positive that inasmuch as Fort Wayne posts inaugurated the movement she is entitled to it. This city asks nothing of the encampment of 1891 and after that she is ready to assist in securing it for any other city which is entitled to it.

There is no precedent established in any G. A. R. encampment in the United States where one city is the selection year after year and it seems a sad commentary on other enterprising cities of the state that they should be forgotten in the excitement. But enterprising efforts will bring it here.

The Business Men's exchange are heart and hand with these committees who are striving so earnestly to accomplish something that will be for public good. The common council will extend all that can possibly lend to the entertainment and comfort of the "boys who wear the badge."

Give Fort Wayne the next G. A. R. encampment.

Mr. J. V. Hiler will go down to Van Buren, Grant county, next Monday to organize an assembly of the Knights of Labor.

BRAIN AND BRAWN.

The Enjoyments and Benefits of a Gymnasium Witnessed by a Reporter.

In anticipation of the coming gymnastic exhibition on the evening of the 23d of this month by the members of the City Y. M. C. A. gymnasium, it may not be untimely to set forth a few facts pertinent to this work. The time when the only gymnasts or athletes were those of the circus or prize ring has passed.

The fact that properly directed exercises will accomplish results when the medical profession is powerless to accomplish is no longer doubted. The object sought in true physical education is not first the possession of Herculean muscle, but the attainment of perfect physical health and with this foremost the other advantages will follow in their order.

Somewhere between the limp body of the helpless invalid and the brawny gladiator of the arena lies the strength which men, and women, too, want. They want enough to give each a well developed body.

Right here in this city there have been under instruction of Prof. Gage several classes in physical culture. In the roomy and well appointed gymnasium room a SENTINEL reporter has been treated to some splendid exhibitions of skill in agility and strength by persons who a few months ago were too weak to "skin the cat."

The gymnasium is a boon to the clergyman, the business man, the clerk and many others whose constitution lacks healthful vigor.

But, aside from the physical benefit derived, the mental impetus is astonishing. No man knows what he has missed until he begins a gymnasium course.

IN SOUTH WAYNE.

A Sentinel Reporter Saunters Through That Thriving Burg.

The little town of South Wayne, thanks to the pride of its inhabitants, is becoming more attractive every day. The improvements are going on with remarkable rapidity.

A large number of buildings are going up next season. M. S. Maburin will erect a handsome stone residence on South Fairfield avenue.

The timber is being cut and thinned out on the Reid property around the high banks and the property will be laid out into acre lots for residence building. Professor Dryer will be the first to build on this property in the spring.

The surveyor has been ordered to survey for sidewalks on all principal streets and for the grading of streets, the work to be prosecuted in the spring.

The tax levy is ten cents on each $100 valuation.

The present trustees draw no salary. They insist that they will not run the town in debt.

Lumber has been purchased to build fifty new street crossings.

STARTLED THE GAMS.

Chief Wilkinson and a Posse Visit Two Gambling Houses.

Last night Chief Wilkinson and a posse visited two gambling houses, the fruits of which was the arrest of eight gamblers all of whom were professionals.

At 27 Calhoun street were Lewis Oliver and Frank Bore.

Each paid a fine of $10.50.

POLICE COURT.

William Jones, arrested by Officer Kramer for vagrancy.

John Clifford arrested by Officer Patton for drunkenness.

James Maguire arrested by Chief Wilkinson for drunkenness.

George Murray arrested by Lieutenant Fuehshober.

Death of Mrs. Fry.

Yesterday afternoon, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Amos Sine, 77 Dawson street, occurred the death of Mrs. Mary Fry, aged eighty years. The deceased was a pioneer citizen, and was greatly esteemed and loved by a large circle of friends.

Her husband has been dead for some years, but several children survive her; among whom are: Mrs. Sine, of this city; Mrs. Mank, of Plymouth; Henry Fry, of St. Louis; Merritt Fry, of Modesty, Mo., and two daughters living in the west.

Jacob Hartman, the retiring president of St. Julian Council, No. 89, yesterday received a deputy state chancellor's commission authorizing and empowering him to institute subordinate councils of the Catholic Benevolent Legion. His first installation of new officers will be at Decatur, Ind., January 29. Mr. Hartman is receiving congratulations on the strength of his appointment.

Scratched 28 Years.

Cured by Cuticura.

If I had known of the Cuticura Remedies twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ringworm, psoriasis, etc. I took ...... and ...... Sarsaparillas over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors, and no cure. I cannot praise the Cuticura Remedies too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's. All I used of them were three boxes of Cuticura, and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and two cakes of Cuticura Soap. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times.

E. A. K. HACKETT, Editor and Proprietor.

SATURDAY, JAN. 18, 1890.

SENATOR BRICE was given an ovation at Lima, Ohio, Thursday night.

THREE of the members of the Ohio legislature have died this week and two others are seriously ill.

GROVER CLEVELAND was the choice of the majority of the editors who met at Indianapolis the other day to attend the State Democratic Editorial association, for president in 1892.

THE Northern Indiana Poultry association will hold its annual meeting at Huntington on January 29, and continue in session a week. Poultry fanciers all over the state are interested in this meeting.

EXPERTS now place the actual wealth of the United States at $61,459,000,000. Its property assessed for taxation upon the duplicates is $23,719,000,000. Some idea of this amount can be had by remembering the fact that it is greater than the wealth of the entire world 150 years ago.

THE first number of Hoffman's Catholic Directory and clergy list quarterly for 1890 is out. It gives the following figures for the two Indiana dioceses: Vincennes: Population, 86,183; priests, 182; churches, 157; chapels, 16; children at school, 13,248; clerical students, 30. Fort Wayne: Population, 64,000, priests, 119; churches, 126; chapels, 13; children at school, 7,200; clerical students, 20.

THE following officers were elected at the new formed alliance of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, held at Philadelphia yesterday: President, H. C. Campbell, of Allegheny; vice-president at large, Mrs. J. Harry White, of Indiana; recording secretary, Mrs. M. S. Shepard, of Tioga; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ellen M. Watson, of Philadelphia; treasurer, Mrs. Lizzie Phillips, of Chester.

THE young king of Spain, who has been pronounced out of danger, is not a pretty child. He is totally bald and has no eye-brows nor eye-lashes. He is nervous and irritable, and inherits an epileptic temperment. His father was a dissipated man, and the child shows the effect of his paternal ancestor's folly. His mother is not a handsome woman by any means, and her son has the plain looks of the Hapsburgs.

A MEETING of the Johnstown flood relief commission was held at Philadelphia this week. A trust company will administer the annuity fund, whereby 322 orphaned children under sixteen will each receive annually $50 until they reach that age. The secretary's report showed that there are estimated to have been drowned in the disaster 2,280 persons; recovered, 1,011. The total contributions amounted to $2,903,072.68, and there is in the hands of the commission an unexpended balance of $70,631.49.

THE year 1888 was a year of plenty in most respects, though the wheat crop was a good deal below the average for recent years. But, according to Bradstreet's, 1889 was a year of still greater plenty. The wheat crop is placed at 490,560,000 bushels, which was next to the largest in the history of the country and nearly 76,000,000 bushels in excess of the crop of 1888. The crop of Indian corn is placed at 2,112,000,000 bushels, or 114,000,000 in excess of that of 1888; oat crop, 751,000,000 bushels, a gain of 50,000,000 bushels; barley crop, 65,000,000 bushels, a gain of 5,000,000; rye crop, 25,000,000, or the same as in 1888.

THE most phenomenal yield of corn ever produced in America has been awarded the prize of $500 offered by the American Agriculturist for the largest crop of shelled corn grown on one acre in 1889. The crop was within a fraction of 255 bushels, green weight, which shrunk to 239 bushels when kiln dried, and when chemically dried contained 217 bushels. The South Carolina state board of agriculture doubled the prize, making the award $1,000 in all. This crop was grown by Z. J. Drake, of Marlboro county, S. C. It is nearly twice as large as the largest authenticated crop ever before reported. The $500 awarded for the largest yield of wheat last year goes to Henry F. Burton, of Salt Lake City, Utah, for a yield of eighty bushels on one acre.

DANIEL WEBSTER MARTIN has been appointed postmaster at Oakford, also known as Fairfield Station, in Howard county, and the Kokomo Dispatch recalls that he was formerly postmaster at that point, and was removed in April 1887, under the Cleveland administration, the commission being issued to John W. Croussore. When the official envelope arrived Mr. Martin chucked it into an unused pigeon-hole and there it remained until August, when a new commission was issued. This shared the fate of the first until January, 1888, when they were returned to Washington indorsed, "No such person getting mail at this office." Another special envelope was started out, and a special agent was detailed to see that it was delivered. When Croussore applied for his mail he met with the formal answer, but the special agent took possession of the office, found the letter and placed Martin under arrest and Judge Woods afterward released him under $500 bond. Still later Mr. Croussore did not press the prosecution and it was dropped. The Dispatch claims that had Mr. Martin been prosecuted he would not only have been fined, but the penalty would have precluded his reappointment to his old place.

LOCAL GOSSIP.

JUDGE CHAPIN.—The longer I live the more profoundly am I impressed with the unreliability of testimony that is offered in court and which might seem to persons of less extended observation as conclusive. Only the other day two farmers of the northern portion of the county swore with great earnestness exactly in opposition to each other in regard to the payment of a note. Now they are justly esteemed among the best residents of Allen county and their word would ordinarily be accepted as true. In this case one of them must have been mistaken—which one I left the jury to decide.

CHARLES E. GRAVES, SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF UNDERWRITERS.—Managers of insurance companies frequently express surprise at the comparatively small amount of insurance carried by Fort Wayne merchants and manufacturers. In most other cities of this size insurance to the amount of 75 or 80 per cent. of the valuation is readily placed by the agents, but here there are very many who do not carry 40 per cent. of the valuation, and some carry even less. This practice of dangerous economy has come in vogue because the city has never had a large conflagration, but that it will always escape no man may say. Whatever is worth owning is worth insuring.

MANAGER TILLO, FORT WAYNE NEWSPAPER UNION.—The system of stereotyping selected matter for use by the newspapers has many reasons to commend it to the general public. It serves all classes of newspapers and their patrons excellently well and provides more "matter" to the publisher than he would care to pay to "set up." More than this, it makes possible the publication of a really good paper in a very small town, where the patronage to be expected is necessarily limited, and the editor, who used to be entirely occupied with his work, is now concerned chiefly about his local page and advertisements and generally has plenty of time left to run for postmaster, school trustee or the legislature.

A LADY—While visiting in Chicago last week I attended the theater quite often, and noticed a very sensible fashion the ladies had of wearing theater waists, or jackets. Handsome dresses are crushed by passing through the crowded aisles and with sitting a whole evening in a narrow chair, and all to no purpose, too, for really, the waist is the only part of the dress that is visible when the wraps are thrown aside. Any plain black silk, or black cashmere skirt answers the purpose. The jackets were made in a variety of shapes, some of the prettiest being worn with a belt and buckle. They were in all the fashionable shades of green, red, and the always popular tan, and were even elaborately trimmed with gold and silver cord, giving a very rich and dressy appearance to the whole toilet.

CITY CIVIL ENGINEER BRACKENRIDGE.—Certain important additions, involving new ideas of drainage, must shortly be made to our sewer system. From about the line of Suttenfield street in the Tenth ward, north to the St. Marys and Maumee rivers there is a natural trend to the land, which makes drainage comparatively easy. But Suttenfield street is at the summit of a "divide," and beyond that thoroughfare the surface of the ground dips as you go south, and an effectual means of drainage in this rapidly growing portion of the city is not at hand. Temporary relief may be had by deepening gutters here and there and carrying off the water by surface drainage, but before long the Walton avenue sewer must be extended to a considerable distance to the south, and perhaps an entirely new sewer constructed.

COL. R. S. ROBERTSON—The contemplated improvement of the tract of land immediately northwest of the Old Fort may lead to some discoveries of vast historical interest. Somewhere on this property Little Turtle, the greatest chieftain of the Miami nation, lies buried and by his side the sword presented to him by General Washington, together with numerous medals that were given to him upon the occasion of his visit to Philadelphia. Here also is the grave of The Toad, nephew of Little Turtle, and like him a chief. With The Toad was buried a considerable sum in gold and silver. The two graves have never been found, but if they should be the precious relics should be preserved. They should not be allowed to leave the city, but should find a permanent place in a public museum, or at least in some local private collection.

C. L. HILL—I began keeping a book store in Fort Wayne in 1848 and cannot help noting the difference in the books that were called for then and now. At that early day there were no publications of a trashy character. They were not thought worth while to expose for sale and of cheap literature, magazines and newspapers, there was but a small supply. The result was that people did not acquire a taste for the sentimental and romantic, but purchased and eagerly read the standard writers. There were many readers of Shakespeare, Byron, and Moore who could quote pages of of their writings, while the histories, such as Hume's, and the best work on theology, geology, political economy, and other branches of knowledge were always in popular demand. How few read them now! We become acquainted with the beauties of Shakespeare only as we hear them from the mouth of an actor, while the old instructors like Hugh Miller and Adam Smith are nearly forgotten.

A COMMERCIAL TRAVELER—Speaking of railway accidents my experience in the Ashtabula horror may interest you. I was a passenger on the Lake Shore railway train which plunged to the bottom of that dreadful abyss. Don't shudder, but hear me out. Just before the train reached the bridge I was seized with a desire for a drink of liquor and confided my wants to the conductor. He told me that at the next station, the last before the train entered upon the high trestle, there was a saloon conveniently near the depot, to which thirsty passengers often resorted. The moment the train halted I dashed down the street and was in the act of crooking my elbow when I heard, and in a moment afterwards saw, the train pull out. I sat down on a trunk on the platform and inwardly cursed that conductor. Within a few moments word came that the train had crashed through the Ashtabula bridge. Then I thought that I had time to go back to that saloon for another drink. There is no moral in this, however, which drinking men may comfort themselves with and I have long since given up my bibulous habits.

TREASURER ROGERS, OF N. G. OLDS & SONS.—There are many good features in the combination of factories, such as ours, in the American Wheel company, and the benefits are shared by employes as well as employers. For example: We receive an order for some heavy truck wheels, which we do not make. The order is turned over to the American Wheel company and is filled from a factory whose specialty is heavy work. This factory in its turn receives an order for light carriage wheels. It may be turned over to us. Thus are all the members in the American Wheel company substantially benefited and the men are made more certain of constant employment and good wages.

JUDGE CHENEY.—There is a big crash coming in business circles in this country and it cannot much longer be delayed. It will result from the unequal division of property among the people, the aggrandizement of the few, the impoverishment of the many. Speculation has run to such lengths that men are no longer satisfied, in their haste to be rich, with the methods which brought a fair competency and continued happiness to their fathers. The concentration of great wealth in the hands of a few precipitated the downfall of the Roman empire. It is the most serious political question in England to-day and the strength of our republican form of government will be sorely tried by it.

JUDGE TAYLOR, MISSISSIPPI RIVER COMMISSIONER.—The subjugation of the Mississippi to the purposes of safe and uninterrupted commerce is beset with difficulties met with in no other large stream on the face of the earth, the Nile possibly excepted. The waters of the Mississippi are heavily charged with alluvial substances, or silt, which the mighty current scours up from the bottom and banks of the river. Once stop the impetuous flow of the stream, and it at once begins to lay down this alluvial load, just as a sediment will settle in the bottom of an impure glass of water that has stood for a time. The result is a bar, then an island or other equally important change in the character of the channel. The only good theory of management of the great stream is to so confine its bank and direct its course that it will be never still, but always engaged in clearing its muddy beds of the obstacles that boatmen find so dangerous.

ENGINEER THOMAS TELLY.—Some railway accidents have a very funny side to them. In my long experience as an engineer I never got off the track but once. I was coming west on a cold winter night and was a little late when I reached Arcola. A long freight train had just got onto the siding and I was signaled to come ahead. I put my hand on the throttle, let her drop a notch and was running at a fifty mile pace when all of a sudden the engine left the track, ran out onto the frozen ground, through a fence, up a hill and there stood erect, puffing and blowing as if surprised at the strange situation it found itself in. The fireman and I looked at each other and each bust into a laugh. But there was a serious side to the occurrence. The coaches had not followed the engine, but had dashed into the freight train and the express messenger was badly injured.

ELDER ANTHUR, SECOND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—As I go about this new house of worship of ours I cannot but think how different it is from the churches to which I was accustomed when a child. They were cold and cheerless, barren of all ornamentation and the services were conducted so differently from the hearty worship of God that we have of late become accustomed to. A church was a church and nothing more. Now-a days we seek to make our houses of worship attractive by combining religion with the highest grade of social pleasures. Here is our lecture room which with its spacious gallery may be used for sociables; here is our well-stocked library full of interesting and instructive books for our little ones and here is our kitchen, closets, cloak room and every needed convenience. Religion should be made inviting and the house of God should be the dearest spot on earth to those who love the good, the bright and the beautiful.

INDIANA POLITICS.

The Coming Election in This State Will be the Most Interesting of the Year.

St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Apart from the congressional contests, the most interesting election which will take place in any state this year is the one which will occur in Indiana. A legislature and some minor state officers are to be chosen. The legislature will select a successor to Daniel W. Voorhees in the United States senate. The contest for the legislature will be the most stubbornly-fought and the most exciting part of the canvass. There are several aspirants for Voorhees' place, while the "Tall Sycamore" himself is anxious to secure a renomination and re-election. All of these will take a prominent part in the canvass. On the republican side the desire for victory and the determination to secure it are equally earnest and manifest.

Indiana for many years past has deserved the reputation which it has acquired of being the most doubtful of all the debatable states. While it has declared for the democrats oftener than for the republicans in the past twenty years, the margin for either of the parties has been particularly small. The highest plurality which it has given to any presidential candidate since 1872 was 6,641, which it gave to Garfield in 1880. All that it gave to Harrison, its most distinguished and popular citizen, in 1888 was 2,348. It is a state which no party can count absolutely on gaining in any particular canvass. Neither party is at any time justified in claiming it or in conceding it to the opposition until the last ballot is counted. This year there is an additional element of interest in the canvass from the fact that it is the president's own state, and the vote will be received by the country as a sort of plebiscitum on his policy.

GREED OF GAIN

and thirst for pleasure. The ruling passion of the human family. In grasping after riches as the brain is taxed, the nervous system strained. In the pursuit of pleasure the body is tortured by fashion's despotic sway; the hours designed for repose are devoted to exhausting revelry; the stomach is ruthlessly imposed upon; pure water, the natural drink for all created beings, is ignored, and liquid fire is substituted until, ere we are aware of it, disease has fixed its iron grasp upon us. Then we look for the "remedy." To the victim of these follies, we commend Dr. Tutt's Liver pills. They stimulate the liver, strengthen the nerves, restore the appetite and build up the debilitated body.

NOT STARTLING.

This is pay day on the Wabash road.

The electric light works pay their employes Monday.

Nat Miller, fireman at the Electric light works, is on the sick list.

J. Polly, the elevator boy at the electric light works, is on the sick list.

The open winter has been favorable to the workingmen in very many respects.

Peter Harper, of the Pittsburg machines shops, is off duty on account of illness.

The machinists in the Pittsburg shops work four nights a week until 9:30 o'clock.

H. H. Doebler, of the Pennsylvania company, has returned from a visit at Chicago.

Henry Miller, one of the oldest machinists in the Pittsburg shops, is on the sick list.

Brainard Rorrison, of the electric works, is out of the city on business for the firm.

E. B. Lepper, of the electric light light works, has returned to work after an illness.

The Pittsburg pay-car did not come in until late yesterday afternoon. It goes west this afternoon.

The sick list in the manufacturing establishments of the city during the last few weeks has been very large.

Henry Grush, of the East Pittsburg car shops, who was injured some time ago, returned to work yesterday.

Geo. Neidhammer is acting foreman at the electric light works during the absence of Supt. Chas. Hilton and Foreman Chas. Knotho.

Traveling Auditor Heckman, of the electric light works, has returned from a six weeks trip, during which he visiting many large plants in the east.

Henry Wimmer, of the Bass works, had his watch stolen the other day from his vest which was hung up on a hook while he was at work. There is no clue to the thief.

R. V. Dutcher, who for a number of years was employed as train dispatcher on the Wabash road at Peru, Ind., committed suicide at Herman, Dak., last week by shooting himself.

Since January 1 the Pennsylvania company has closed contracts for 30,000 tons of new steel rails, and the Union Pacific for 40,000 tons. The price ranged from $28 to $39 a ton.

La grippe is making bad work among railway telegraph operators, and superintendents of telegraph are experiencing considerable trouble in keeping the offices along the roads properly manned.

The railroad commissioners of New York recommend that railings be placed along the top of freight cars as a safeguard for employes in case of accident. They also advocate continuous train brakes.

The railroad commissioners of New York, in their annual report, say that heating trains by steam taken from the locomotive is an accomplished fact, but the present system works only fairly well. It seems, at times, quite difficult to control the temperature of coaches.

John J. Heaton took passage upon a Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville train some months ago, and claims that he lost a trunkful of goods valued at $200. He says that the railroad company will not make the loss good, and he has brought suit in the superior court at Indianapolis to enforce payment.

February 1 the Pennsylvania Railroad company will introduce a new feature on its limited trains. On each train between New York and Philadelphia an expert stenographer and type-writer will be carried for the service of passengers. A compartment is fitted up and arrangements made for mailing letters on the train.

John E. Ross, the passenger agent of the Pennsylvania road, entertained the following traveling passengor agents during his leisure hours yesterday: O. E. Jenkins, of the New York Central, J. A. Sheppard, of the Rock Island; O. Warner, of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy; H. A. Bonn, of the Topeka and Santa Fee; C. C. Murdaugh, of the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul.

H. A. Philley, chief clerk in Road Foreman of Engineers Pelhamus' office, is interrupted in his work fifty times a day by men applying for situations as firemen on the Pennsylvania. He is a very busy man and to save time and the necessity of answering questions has posted up in conspicuous letters over his desk, this notice: "The road foreman is not it. Do not know when he will be in. He has all the firemen he wants at present."

Trainmen on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, between Findlay and Fostoria, are greatly disturbed over what they claim is the ghost of a dead freight conductor. The conductor was killed one night last November, about eight miles east of Findlay, by this train breaking into two sections in such manner that he was thrown to the track from the car on which he was standing and beheaded by the wheels before the train could be controlled.

Dr. J. M. Kells, the examining physician of the Pennsylvania mutual relief association, reports fifty eight employes of the Pennsylvania company in this city off duty on account of illness. There are others, but all of these fifty-eight employes are members of the relief association and draw a certain allowance each day during their illness.

WORKMAN'S LIEN.

In the supreme court of the state, in the case of Wilcox vs. the Midland railroad company, the following decision of interest has been rendered;

The legislature intended, by the act of 1883, giving persons doing work upon a railroad or furnishing materials, a valid and effective lien, and the act of 1885 simply carries this intention into effect. The act of 1883 gave a lien upon a railroad and not upon mere parcels of it, as an isolated bridge or culvert or a single embankment or excavation.

2. Mechanics' liens are assignable.

3. A lien fastens upon an entire and continuous line of unfinished road and may be enforced in any one of the counties through which the road runs.

4. When a corporation having a line of railroad in operation to a town or city within a county contracts for a construction of a part of the road leading from such town or city to a point beyond the county limits, the contractors may acquire a lien upon the part which they construct or aid in constructing, although a portion of it lies within the county in which a part of the road is completed and in operation.

5. One notice filed in each of the proper counties will cover the entire line when it is included in one contract, and when the work has been done upon it and the materials furnished for it as a continuous line.

Items of Interest From Different Parts of the State.

Mrs. Charles Kain, of St. Louis, who has been on a visit for several weeks at the home of her brother, Mr. Ed Clark, at Metamora, dropped dead at the dinner-table. Supposed to be heart disease.

Edward Gohayne, a machinist of Richmond, died almost immediately after reaching home yesterday noon, with heart disease. He was apparently in his usual health a half hour before, when he started home.

Mrs. Wilson, a woman of thirty-eight years, who was released from the Insane Asylum at Indianapolis last Saturday, committed suicide Tuesday night, at her home, in the southern part of Jackson county, killing herself with a shotgun.

Trains on the E. and I. have not yet crossed Eel river at Clay City for nearly two weeks, and trade is almost at a stand-still, as merchants can get neither freight nor express matter. The bridge is being repaired and trains will get over to-day.

James Thompson, of Edinburg, aged about twenty-two, is an inveterate cigarette smoker, from the effects of which he has absorbed so much poison that it has ulcerated his throat until it has been necessary to lance it several times. He is now lying in a critical condition.

Steve Curran, of Terre Haute, and Joe Dwyer, of Chicago, gave a six-round, four-ounce sparring match at Clay City Wednesday night. Curran got the worst of it. Such business is not popular there, and in consequence only about two dozen persons attended.

"Bud" Markseberry, a barkeeper at Greencastle, was severely cut in the forehead by "Ol" Cummings, of Quincy, in a quarrel over the price of a drink, and Cummings was knocked down and badly beaten in the scuffle. Cummings killed a brother of Markeberry's fifteen years ago.

James Milburn, a lad attending school southeast of Delphi, created no little sensation a few days ago. While sitting in the school room he amused himself by picking at a dynamite cartridge with a pin. The cartridge exploded, terribly mangling his hands and creating consternation in the school room. One scholar was so badly frightened that he had to be carried to his home.

Thursday evening, just before No. 8, the eastbound fast line on the Pennsylvania road, due here at 7.40 reached Richey station, a few miles east of this city, the watchman at that place discovered that the bolts which held the frog at the west end of the switch had been broken off, thereby making it dangerous for a train to pass over in safety. It is supposed that the bolts had been broken with an ax or some heavy instrument as they were badly bent near the broken places.

At the poultry show being held in Indianapolis, Mr. Hans Newell, of this city, has been awarded premiums as follows: Third on white-faced black Spanish cocks, first and fourth on hens, third on cockerels, third on pullets, and second on hen.

What is a cold in the head? Medical authorities say it is due to unoverclothing of the body, rapid cooling when in a perspiration, &c. The important point is, that a cold in the head is an inflammation of the lining membrane of the nose, which, when unchecked, is certain to produce a catarrhal condition—for catarrh is essentially a "cold," which nature is no longer able to "resolve" or throw off. Ely's Cream Balm has proved its superiority, and sufferers should resort to it before that common ailment becomes seated and ends in obstinate catarrh.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds does, is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

George W. Childs has just bought 320 clocks. He paid $1,100 for one.

"STOP"—Nature Has a Cure.

EATON RAPIDS, Mich.

J. M. LOOSE RED CLOVER CO., Detroit:—Two years I was afflicted with a very severe attack of Erysipelas. After two physicians had used their treatment for several weeks and I continued growing blind, and in their diagnosis concluded that there was no earthly help or hope for me. I gave up, having tried all the remedies I knew or heard of. My neighbor, Mr. Miller, came in to see me one day, and said try LOOSE'S Extract of Red Clover, as he had known of its working remarkable cures. I told him I had lost hope, that nothing would do me any good in the world. He insisted, and taking his hat went to the drug store and bought me one bottle and urged me to try it, which I did. Ten days afterward I sent for two more bottles, and it is wonderful how I improved. I continued using it and to-day I am better than I have been in years. No sign of erysipelas has shown itself and I heartily recommend it to suffering humanity as the greatest and best blood purifier in existence. Yours truly,

Bright eyes and dull; near sighted; far sighted; anybody (except those who won't, and they are worse than blind) can see at a glance the advantages gained by using PEARLINE. We do not expect everyone will see it, but millions do, and the number increases every day.

Delicate women and strong wonder at the amount of work they can do with the aid of PEARLINE—the time saved; the satisfactory results, and when they have used it for years they realize that everything that is washed or cleaned with PEARLINE lasts longer. This is very simple—PEARLINE does away with most of the rubbing—the greatest wear and tear that clothes are subjected to is the repeated rubbings necessary to keep them clean with ordinary soap. Your own interests should lead you to use it, if you do your own work and value your fine linens and flannels; the latter reason should surely convince any bright woman that it is to her interest to see that her servants use it. PEARLINE makes a saving all around.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline, or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not. 262 JAMES PYLE, New York.

FRUIT HOUSE PRICES FOR 1890.

This year opens favorable for the people, so far as the Sugar Market is concerned. Last season the great sugar trust had their grip on the market and made it ruinous to the purchaser—so much so that Sugars were advanced in 60 days at least 50 per cent. This is now over—the Sugar Trust is broken and Sugars have declined to a point lower than they ever were—the last reduction is 1 cent per lb. We now offer Best Extra C., 5c. Best Standard A., 6½c.

Powdered and Crushed, 7c. Granulated and Cut Loaf, 7c.

COFFEE, COFFEE—Rio, Java and Roasted Coffee.

There has been little change in the Coffee Market the last three months. It is too high yet. The clique has control of the market and keeps prices up. We still sell our best Rio at 20c. lb. This we are enabled to do in consequence of our large purchases and selling direct to our customers—in this way saving the profit of the jobber and wholesale merchant.

Best Rio Coffee, 20c. lb. Choice Old Govt. Java, 27c lb.

TEAS, TEAS—Young Hyson, Oolong and Japan.

The high price of Coffee has induced a great many to try Tea—and when it is considered that a pound of Tea can be had for the price of a pound of Coffee and that it will go twice as far, it is not to be wondered at that there is a great increase in our Tea Trade. The truth is we sell double the quantity we used to a few years ago. Our motto is selling large quantities at a small profit, for we purchase direct of the Importers and then in selling direct to our customers we save three profits—the speculator, jobber and the wholesale dealer. We sell a good, rich drawing Tea at 20c. lb., and one grade as low as 10c. lb.

The bridal party left on the 12:58 train for Terre Haute, from which place they will go through the south and then settle in their western home in Oregon. They received a number of costly presents. Those who attended the wedding from abroad were Rev. J. F. Lang, of Fort Wayne; Miss Mamie Lang, of Delphos, cousins of the groom; Miss Kate Leighton, of Warsaw; Rev. Hartmann, of Monroeville; Miss Kate Sweeney and Miss Anna Fardan, of this city.

THAT TERRIBLE "GRIPPE"

"La Grippe," the Russian influenza, that has caused so much talk, is a more severe affliction than people usually think. It arises mysteriously and appears to have its origin in the atmosphere. The last time it visited America was in 1803 and it came then, as now from Asia. The name 'influenza' comes from the suggestion that the malady was due to the 'influences' of the heavenly bodies, but more modern science has discovered that it is due to the changes in the electrical conditions. Whatever may be the cause, it is a strong congestion of the blood vessels and mucous membrane, principally in the head and throat, and nothing but strong stimulants will check this congestion and keep the blood actively circulating. For this purpose I know of nothing better than pure whisky, and I believe Duffy's Pure Malt to be the best and purest whiskey known to the world.

Formerly this influenza was said to precede an epidemic of the plague, and the person who was about to be taken with the latter, had as a preliminary, a fit of sneezing. Now it precedes a worse epidemic than the plague, namely, the terrible pneumonia. Its beginning is light but its ending is often terrible. Pains in the limbs, back, chest and head, a sore throat and lack of appetite; copious discharge at the nose; these are some of the symptoms of this dread disease. Upon the slightest approach of any of these symptoms, a nervous feeling, or lassitude, resort should be had to pure whiskey, which is the only certain means of breaking up this epidemic before it secures a hold upon the system ... when it has become started. Care should be taken however to secure only that which is pure, as the article above named certainly is.
